Welcome to Beth Israel Congregation!

Beth Israel is a thriving egalitarian community in which you can share the experiences and joys of Jewish life in spiritual, social and thought provoking educational activities throughout the year.

We express our love of tradition in our beautiful sanctuary, situated in the round amidst a natural setting, where you can participate in meaningful worship reflecting the Jewish calendar and life cycle events. Captivating and inspirational sermons and our warm members add to the richness and uniqueness of the Beth Israel religious experience.

Our membership is dedicated to Tikkun Olam -- repairing the world. We support many local and worldwide agencies where you can join the fight against poverty, homelessness, and hunger.

We are life long learners and promote Jewish educational opportunities to all generations through Religious School classes, adult Hebrew courses, Shabbat Limmud, discussion series, Lunch and Learns and lectures by distinguished guest speakers.

We welcome you regardless of your race or sexual orientation, regardless of your income or occupation, whether you are single, married, or in a committed relationship.

We are here for you!

Please join us for our upcoming events

Rosh Hashanah Family Celebration (September 4) Pizza in the Hut (September 25) International Shul of Pancakes (September 27) Friday Night Lights Dinner (October 4) Kaifeng House of Israel Chinese Dinner (December 24) Rosenberg Scholar-in-Residence Weekend (March 28 – 29) plus many others.

The Jewish Calendar

"The Jewish calendar is the catechism of the Jews."

— Rabbi Samson Raphael Hirsch

The calendar shapes Jewish life and gives expression to the Jewish worldview. The deepest values and aspirations of the faith are revealed by the content of and the relationships among our holidays. The calendar is a solar-adjusted lunar system. The months average twenty-nine and a half days, resulting in a 354-day year. To ensure that festivals fall in their proper season, a thirteenth month is added in seven of every nineteen years.

"The holy days are the unbroken master code of Judaism."

– Rabbi Irving Greenberg

Festivals and Holy Days

A religion's sacred occasions reflect its history and beliefs. Holidays from our past commemorate ancient events, while newer holidays mark seminal developments of later times. The chief elements of the Jewish People's sacred seasons are: the cycles of nature and the natural world's beneficence; historic triumphs and tragedies, in all their power and promise; and the messianic hope to perfect our character and our world, in partnership with God.

3

"Three times a year you shall hold a festival for Me."

– Exodus 23:14

The Pilgrim Festivals: Nature and History

The Three "Pilgrim Festivals" are Pesach, Passover, in early spring; Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, in late spring; and Sukkot, the Feast of Booths, in the autumn. In ancient times, Israelite males made pilgrimages to Jerusalem to celebrate the festivals. Pesach celebrates the liberation of our people from Egyptian bondage and nature's release from the bonds of winter. Shavuot commemorates the giving of Torah and the successful completion of the early harvest. Sukkot rejoices in God's providence during our forty-year journey from Egypt to the Promised Land, as well as the fullness of the autumn harvest.

"Our Parent, our Sovereign, hear our voice!"

—High Holy Day Prayer boo

The High Holy Days

The "Ten Days of Repentance" from Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, through Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement, call for "an accounting of the soul." On Rosh Hashanah we express our hope for a sweet new year with apples and honey, reaffirm God's sovereignty and our need to make a new beginning with the sounding of the shofar, a ram's horn, and symbolically cast away our sins. On Yom Kippur we fast to enhance our concentration on spiritual matters; we confess our sins and seek reconciliation with those we have wronged during the past year.

"From grief and mourning to festive joy."

– Esther 9:22)

History-Based Holidays: The Past as Prologue

The eternal lessons of monumental events in Jewish history come alive each year in rituals of remembering and reenactment. Purim, the Feast of Lots, celebrates the story from the biblical book of Esther, in which a plot to exterminate the Jews is foiled by a woman of courage. Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights, commemorates the rededication of the Jerusalem Temple and the regaining of religious freedom after the Maccabean victory over the vastly more powerful Assyrian Greeks. Tisha B'av, the ninth day of the month of Av, is a day of fasting on which some of the most painful and catastrophic events of Jewish history are remembered.

"In memory lies the secret of redemption."

(Baal Shem Tov)

Modern Observances

The 20th century produced some of the most horrible events of Jewish history and some of the most miraculous. Their meaning is captured through new holidays. Yom Hashoah v'Ha-Gevurah, Holocaust and Heroism Commemoration Day, memorializes the six million Jews killed by the Nazis and their collaborators and celebrates the courage of those who resisted the evildoers. Yom Ha-atzmaut, Israel Independence Day, celebrates the 1948 creation of the State of Israel as the culmination of 2000 years of hope and prayer. Yom Yerushalayim, Jerusalem Reunification Day, recalls the day in 1967 when Jewish soldiers recaptured the Old City of Jerusalem and reunited the city in which Jews have lived since the days of King David.

The Temple Museum was founded in 1950 and has over 1,400 ritual and fine arts objects that are exhibited in three different gallery locations: The Temple-Tifereth Israel Gallery at the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage, The Temple-Tifereth Israel's landmark synagogue building in Cleveland's University Circle and The Temple-Tifereth Israel in Beachwood, Ohio.

Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage: An American Story

Opened in 2005, The Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage joined an elite group of world-class institutions as a living testament to the courage, conviction and achievements of Cleveland's Jewish community. The stories of individuals and families – past and present – come to life through state-of-the-art exhibitions, interactives and films, oral histories, photographs and artifacts. The Museum includes The Temple-Tifereth Israel Gallery, an internationally-recognized collection of Judaica, and an exhibition gallery featuring important exhibitions of national and international acclaim.

For information about hours, admission, programs, the Museum Store and special exhibitions, visit www.MaltzJewishMuseum.org or phone (216) 593-0575. The Museum is located at 2929 Richmond Road, Beachwood, Ohio.

Washtenaw Jewish News aims and principles

- To provide the Jewish community of Washtenaw County with a quality newspaper that will present news of Jewish interest with a priority on local news.
- To offer commentary, interpretation and authentic background on events of the day, as a means of stimulating the concern and response vital to the fulfillment of our responsibilities as members of the Jewish community.
- To enrich the life of both individuals and the community through the presentation of features, articles, reviews and other material of Jewish content and interest.
- To provide a forum for comment by members of the community wishing to express their viewpoints on matters of Jewish interest.

The Washtenaw Jewish News is completely independent and is not affiliated with any one program, organization, movement or point of view within Jewish life, but endeavors to give expression to all facets of that life.

At the center of a wonderfully diverse and welcoming Jewish community, the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor celebrates and strengthens Jewish life at home, in Israel and around the world.

Federation sponsors a wide variety of social, educational, cultural and scholarship programs throughout the year, including seminars and lectures, trips to Israel and community celebrations. Federation's fall "Main Event" brings together hundreds of community members to share an evening of community education and fellowship, and is a highlight of its annual campaign in support of Ann Arbor's vibrant Jewish communal life. In the spring, Celebrate Israel is a festive celebration of Israel Independence Day.

The 2013 annual campaign raised over $1.4 million from 1,100 donor families. In addition to supporting local Jewish agencies and overseas partners (see allocations sidebar) the Federation supports projects in Israel and around the world that reflect the unique progressive character of Ann Arbor. The Federation is an active participant in the Michigan/Central Galilee Partnership 2000 project, anchored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Detroit. Since 2007, Ann Arbor has had a special relationship with Moshav Nahalal, involving numerous programs and visits aimed at strengthening the Jewish identity and connectedness of both communities.

The strength of the Federation comes from its many volunteers and active participants in the annual campaign, community programs, affinity groups and committees. The Federation welcomes inquiries from new and existing community members who are interested in exploring ways to be involved or simply to learn more about Jewish life in Washtenaw County

The Jewish Community Foundation is operated by the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor and exists to ensure that the high quality of Jewish life will continue in Washtenaw County for community members' children and grandchildren. The Foundation serves as custodian for many of the endowment funds of area Jewish agencies and congregations assisting them to fulfill their future needs and dreams. Beth Israel Congregation, Chabad House, Hebrew Day School, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor, Jewish Family Services and Temple Beth Emeth all partner with the Jewish Community Foundation to secure the financial future of the Jewish community.

The Foundation's board of directors is empowered to receive gifts and bequests of cash, stocks and property from individuals, corporations and other entities. The Foundation can help donors fulfill their philanthropic goals while addressing their estate planning and tax needs, through the creation of donor-advised funds, permanent restricted and unrestricted endowment funds, charitable trusts and gift annuities. The Jewish Community Foundation enables donors to assure that the institutions and programs in the community that they value will be available in perpetuity while leaving their own personal legacy in the community.

Contact the director of the Foundation or the executive directors of any of the partner organizations to consult confidentially about planned giving opportunities.

As an agency in Washtenaw County that serves a diverse, international population, the mission of Jewish Family Services (JFS) is to create solutions, promote dignity and inspire humanity. JFS provides programs and services that support the entire community in congruence with the Jewish value of tikkun olam, or repairing the world. JFS' Case Management/Services Coordination, Outpatient Mental Health Treatment (Counseling) and Employment Services programs are accredited by CARF International.

OLDER ADULT SERVICES

Geriatric social workers provide case management, assessment, counseling, home visits, crisis intervention, information, and referrals for older adults and their families. The Healthy Ideas program screens for depression in all older adults. Volunteers offer friendly visiting and telephone reassurance to homebound seniors. Volunteers also facilitate video chats for isolated older adults in the GenChat program. Through its Partners in Care Concierge medical accompaniment program, trained volunteers accompany older adults to their medical appointments in order to listen, facilitate productive communication and return with a written report for accurate follow up by the client or caregiver.

CAREGIVER SUPPORT SERVICES

The JFS Older Adult Services Coordinator assists local and long distance caregivers in managing the care of their older parents or loved ones. This program provides support through an extensive menu of services including information and referrals, facilitated introductions to facilities and service providers, Caregiver Consultations, monthly Caregiver Conversations support groups, educational workshops, and more.

NEW AMERICAN PROGRAM

The New American Community Club assists foreign-born older adults in accessing social and medical services, offers support, and promotes the process of acculturation and integration into the larger community though a wide range of direct services and programs.

COUNSELING

JFS offers professional, effective and confidential assessment and counseling services to individuals, couples and families of all ages to help restore emotional balance in their lives. JFS Counseling Services are accredited by CARF International and may be covered by Medicare and Blue Cross Blue Shield. A Jewish Bereavement Group will begin in Fall 2012.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

JFS assists community members with crisis management, including information and referral to community resources, a food pantry with Kosher and Halal and gluten-free items as well as food for other specialized diets, clothing, furniture, and other types of emergency assistance

EMPLOYMENT AND CAREER SERVICES

JFS provides individualized services and guidance to job seekers in order to alleviate barriers to long-term, sustainable employment. The program also offers a wide range of specialized services for non-English speakers in our county participating in the PATH (Partnership. Accountability. Training. Hope.) program (Formerly known as JET). JFS Employment Services are accredited by CARF International.

RESETTLEMENT AND INTERNATIONAL SERVICES

JFS provides a range of resettlement JFS provides a range of resettlement services for refugees, such as help establishing housing, preparing for citizenship, learning English, seeking employment, securing government documents, and adapting to American culture and life.

TRANSPORTATION

The JFS CareVan Program enables older or disabled adults and other residents to maintain their independence by providing rides within the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti area to medical appointments, errands, and community events. The vehicle fleet includes a van with a wheelchair lift and seating for ten. Riders must be JFS clients and make reservations one week in advance.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

JFS is able to provide services to those in need because of the help we receive from the wonderful volunteers in our community. We provide unique and fulfilling volunteer opportunities tailored to meet diverse preferences, skills and schedules. There are many ways to help: be a friendly visitor or facilitate video chats for isolated older adult in the GenChat program. Partners in the PiCC program accompany seniors to their medical appointments. English as a Second Language tutors or conversational partners help teach immigrants and refugees. You may provide administrative assistance in the office, join a committee or assist at an event.

THE HERB AMSTER CENTER

The Herb Amster Center is a new division of JFS and is the legacy of the late Herb Amster who was an active community leader and a strong supporter of JFS. The mission of the Center is to develop revenue-generating businesses to reduce JFS' dependence on grant and foundation funding.

Out days are open to students from HDS, AAPS, and other schools and children in grades K–5.

Vacation Fun Days programs featuring field trips and special programs are offered daily from 7:30 a.m.–6 p.m. during the December, February, April, and Passover school breaks. Vacation Fun Days are open to students from HDS, AAPS, and other schools and are for JCC members in grades K–5.

JCC Snow Day programs for JCC members in grades K-5 are offered from 10 a.m.–6 p.m. whenever AAPS schools are closed due to winter weather conditions but the JCC is able to safely open. Special activities are run at the JCC on those days.

The JCC also offers afterschool or Sunday afternoon birthday parties featuring themes such as sports, arts and crafts, cartoon characters, and more.

YOUTH SPORTS

JCC MACCABI GAMES

email: jeffbaden@jccfed.org
Jeff Baden, executive director

Each summer the JCC takes a team of Ann Arbor athletes ages 13–16 to the JCC Maccabi Games (www.jccmaccabigames.org). The JCC Maccabi Games are an incredible opportunity for teens to experience a week of Olympics-style sporting competition, community service, and social activities with Jewish teens from around the world.

SPORTS CLINICS

Throughout the year the JCC will offer sports clinics to help youngsters improve their sports skills. Clincs are sometimes one day events and other times a series.

CAMP RAANANA

email: campdirector@jccfed.org

Camp Raanana, the JCC's outdoor summer day camp for children entering grades K–8 is located on a beautiful beachfront at Cedar Lake Outdoor Center. Camp Raanana offers a place for campers to explore new interests, gain self-confidence, build Jewish identity, and have fun outside. The camp offers eight one-week sessions and provides swim lessons, arts and crafts, music, nature exploration, archery, sports, free swim, Shabbat celebrations, and weekly special events or all-camp field trips.

Our Outdoor Survival Adventure Program facilitated by The Heavner Nature Connection leads campers through educational outdoor programs each Thursday and Friday. Activities include boating, fishing, hiking, orienteering and much more! Another exciting camp program is our Friday Shabbat BBQ, where we serve kosher or veggie hot dogs.

Camp Raanana also be hosts the popular Israeli Scouts Friendship Caravan for a visit to camp and an evening performance at the JCC. The annually Camp hosts a Shabbat at the Lake celebration featuring performances by all the camper groups.

At Camp Raanana, campers entering grades K–5 enjoy the benefits of experienced and nurturing counselors and enriching activity sessions, including Red Cross swim lessons three times a week. Campers entering grades 6–8 participate in exciting field trips and fun mitzvah projects each week.

COUNSELORS IN TRAINING (CIT)

Camp Raanana offers a CIT program for entering 9th and 10th graders. CITs will work under the supervision of Junior and Head Counselors. They will serve as a positive role model and assist in the preparation and implementation of camp activities.

JCC SHALOM PROGRAMS

SHALOM ANN ARBOR

The Jewish Community Center's Shalom Ann Arbor assists relocating families and welcomes them to the Jewish community. The Shalom Ann Arbor Welcome Package is an essential information packet for newcomers or those considering relocating to the city. It includes the Guide to Jewish Life, the most recent edition of the Washtenaw Jewish News, a half priced membership to the JCC, information on activities in the Jewish community, and more. A volunteer will be available to provide a personal welcome and introduction to Ann Arbor's Jewish community for those who have already moved here.

SHALOM BABY

Shalom Baby welcomes parents, their newborns and newly-adopted children into the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor. Shalom Baby provides growing families with a Welcome to the World gift bag full of fun and helpful gifts; information on parenting and Jewish resources for parents and families.

FAMILY AND HOLIDAY CELEBRTIONS

The JCC offers a variety of family programming throughout the year. Community members can look forward to celebrations such as the Latke Hop, Apples and Honey, Passover to Go, Purim Spiels and more.

DEPARTMENT OF JEWISH CULTURAL ARTS AND EDUCATION

Karen Freedland, Jewish Cultural Arts and Education director

Self-expression is at the heart of Jewish life and values. Arts and culture play a unique role in conveying Jewish values and traditions from generation to generation and the benefits and impact of arts and culture on our community are immeasurable. The JCC of Greater Ann Arbor's Jewish Culture Arts & Education program's wide variety of offerings, including film, music, adult education, lectures, and art, enrich not only our Jewish community but also the community-at-large.

JEWISH BOOK FESTIVAL

For over 20 years, the JCC has hosted a Jewish Book Festival in November. The Book Festival offers a unique opportunity to hear from many talented authors on a variety of subjects during weekday Lunch & Learn events, evening events, and on Sundays throughout the multi-day festival at the JCC. Events are free and open to the public.

JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

Each April, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor, in association with the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit and the Michigan Theater, brings the Lenore Marwil Jewish Film Festival to Ann Arbor.

FILM DISCUSSION GROUP

The Film Discussion Group meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month and is led by Russell Collins, Executive Director of the Michigan Theater and co-host of WEMU's Cinema Chat. Discussions cover not only movie plots and characters but also the unique cinematic elements of film.

ART EXHIBITS

The JCC schedules a variety of art exhibits and programs throughout the year in the Amster Gallery. They may include individual exhibits by local artists, traveling exhibits and exhibits arranged by JCC staff such as the Senior Photography Exhibit which is scheduled for February and March. There is often programming planned in coordination with these exhibits such as: docent tours, talks by the artists and/or audio visual presentations.

EDUCATION AND CULTURAL PROGRAMMING

The JCC is expanding their education and cultural programs. Educational classes lectures and discussion groups will take place throughout the year. Theater programs, book clubs and architecture tours are also part of the program expansion.

GELMAN VIDEO COLLECTION

Through the generous support of Charles and Rita Gelman, the DVDs and tapes of the Jewish Heritage Video Collection (JHVC) are available for rental from the JCC.

WELLNESS ACADEMY

Healthy bodies and minds are supported by the JCC's Wellness Academy through classes, lectures and demonstrations. Some of the classes offered are: Zumba, Israeli Dance, Martial Arts, Yoga, Meditation, cooking demonstrations and much, much more.

ANN ARBOR ORTHODOX MINYAN

email: rabbi@annarborminyan.org website: www.annarborminyan.org
Rabbi Rod Glogower

The Ann Arbor Orthodox Minyan meets in the University of Michigan Hillel in conjunction with the Hillel student Orthodox Minyan. Services are held weekly at sundown on Fridays during the school year and between 7 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the summer, depending on the week. Shabbat morning services are at 9:30 a.m. The Shabbat afternoon Mincha service is held a half-hour before sunset year round, followed by Seudah Shlishit and Maariv.

Daily morning services are held in conjunction with Chabad House at 7:30 a.m., Monday–Wednesday at Hillel, and Thursday, Friday, and Sunday (at 9 a.m.) at Chabad House.

A variety of formal and informal learning opportunities are offered during the school year, including Rabbi Glogower's Tuesday evening class "Topics in Rabbinic Literature" and a short class between Shabbat Mincha and Maariv. The minyan sponsors other activities throughout the year including a welcome barbeque in the fall, Shabbat morning children's tefillah and story time, a sukkah hop, women's learning in the sukkah, a winter melave malka lecture series, a women's megillah reading, a Shavuot tikkun and Shavuot picnic.

ANN ARBOR RECONSTRUCTIONIST CONGREGATION

2935 Birch Hollow Drive, Ann Arbor, MI 48108
tel: 445-1910
email: info@aarecon.org
website: www.aarecon.org
Facebook: www.facebook.com/AnnArborRecon
Michal Woll, rabbi
Jen Cohen, event and volunteer coordinator

The Ann Arbor Reconstructionist Congregation is a welcoming community that emphasizes an evolving and active Judaism. We are a participatory congregation of singles and families dedicated to providing innovative and egalitarian services that help participants connect to Jewish traditions and observance. AARC encourages participants to reinterpret traditions, not to be different, but to make them more meaningful. AARC offers Shabbat services, holiday celebrations, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, a Beit Sefer (religious school), community events, tikkun olam and cultural activities. Ticketless High Holiday services are open to the entire community. The AARC is a member of the Jewish Reconstructionist Movement.

The Ann Arbor Eruv

The eruv in Ann Arbor covers an area of approximately four square miles and includes several residential and student areas in Burns Park and Ann Arbor Hills, as well as Woodbury Gardens. The eruv also includes the Hillel Foundation Building (at which the Ann Arbor Orthodox Minyan meets), Beth Israel Congregation and Temple Beth Emeth. A detailed map of the eruv can be found at the eruv website www.a2eruv.org. Weekly updates on the eruv status are posted at the website and are also distributed to an e-mail list. To be placed on the list for eruv updates, to volunteer to help check the eruv or for other questions, send an email message to a2eruv@a2eruv.org.

THE COMMUNITY

AARC is committed to building a participative, inclusive Jewish community that welcomes all generations, sexual orientations, interfaith unions, different beliefs, and varied Jewish knowledge, traditions, and backgrounds. AARC nurtures the feel of the Havurah that we were for nearly two decades—informal, dynamic, and lay-led—while we continue to deepen our learning and practice with new Rabbinic leadership.

Reconstructionist Judaism is passionate Judaism. A core tenet of Reconstructionism is that "the past has a vote, not a veto." AARC members actively explore and debate Jewish beliefs and practices, balancing a respect for traditional Jewish teachings with the responsibility to interpret them in the light of our contemporary values. In the context of AARC, tikkun olam includes social action, tzedakah, caring for the planet, and embracing pluralism. Within klal yisrael (the Jewish community) this commitment involves respecting a wide range of Jewish practices and beliefs. Outside the Jewish community, AARC seeks to embrace diversity and inclusiveness while rejecting chauvinism and bigotry.

BEIT SEFER (RELIGIOUS SCHOOL)

Our Beit Sefer is an innovative, warm, and meaningful educational experience for K-7th graders that welcomes the children of AARC members and non-members alike. Students in three mixed age group classes explore Jewish tradition and learn Hebrew language. Teachers engage students in experiential learning as student examine Jewish values underpinning both religion and culture, and study how Judaism continues to evolve. The curriculum is tailored to age-appropriate learning. The youngest children learn through song, art, play, and stories while the oldest are encouraged to ask difficult questions, to wrestle with the answers, and to develop their leadership skills. Justice and ethics are important parts of the curriculum. The Beit Sefer uses a hands-on, self-paced approach to learning Hebrew and prayers that develops knowledge for bar and bat mitzvah services. The Beit Sefer meets on Sunday mornings at the Jewish Community Center, from

BETH ISRAEL CONGREGATION (CONSERVATIVE)

Robert Dobrusin, senior rabbi
Kim Blumenthal, associate rabbi
Elliot Sorkin, executive director

Established in 1916, Beth Israel has been a vital presence in the spiritual, social and educational lives of its members for over 95 years. The congregation, a member of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, is a welcoming and warm community, which fosters a connectedness to our rich tradition, embraces innovative and creative programming, and provides an important support system for its members in times of celebration and in times of need. Rabbi Robert Dobrusin, who is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary, has served the congregation with distinction for 25 years. Rabbi Kim Blumenthal, also a JTS graduate, has served the congregation since 2008.

Beth Israel offers religious services that are traditional in form, egalitarian in nature, and participatory in practice. The services feature a wonderful sense of fellowship and community. Congregants take leading roles in the conducting of all services. All are encouraged to review or learn new synagogue skills and to read from the Torah, chant the haftarah, or lead services, with instruction provided by Ritual Assistant Ron Sussman.

An egalitarian daily minyan, led by congregants is held Sunday–Thursday at 7:30 p.m. (5 p.m. on winter Sundays.) Friday evening Shabbat services take place at 6 p.m. and Saturday morning Shabbat services begin at 9:30 a.m.

Recognizing the critical importance of Jewish learning for all ages, the congregation provides classes for children and youth, and many opportunities for adult education throughout the year.

Social and recreational activities which allow people to get to know each other better and programs emphasizing tikkun olam are an important part of congregational life. A deep relationship to Israel is fostered through teen scholarships, congregation trips, dialogue programs and the planning and hosting of a moving community-wide Yom Hazikaron (Israeli Fallen Soldiers and Victims of Terrorism Remembrance Day) Ceremony.

Beth Israel hosts the homeless during Christmas through the Rotating Overflow Shelter program, provides volunteers to the Interfaith Hospitality Network at Alpha House for homeless families, runs a blood drive in March, and maintains a garden which supplies fresh vegetables to hunger programs. The Beth Israel Mitzvah Connection organizes volunteers for phone calls and visits to the frail elderly who are homebound, as well as meals, rides, and errands to congregants who need them.

Non-members are always invited to participate in all of Beth Israel activities.

New residents of Washtenaw County since last Yom Kippur may request free tickets to the High Holiday services. Individuals and families aged 35 and under may join the congregation in their first year for a dues of $300 (plus United Synagogue dues of $35.25).

BETH ISRAEL PROGRAMS DEPARTMENT

e-mail: programs@bethisrael-aa.org

The Program Department provides high quality, experiential and informal Jewish learning opportunities for youth, adults and families.

THE BETH ISRAEL GARDEN

Each summer Beth Israel members maintain a community garden at County Farm Park where they grow flowers and vegetables donated to Food Gatherers through the "Faith and Food" program to help others in the community, and used during kiddush and for other synagogue meals.

SUMMER SHABBAT CELEBRATIONS

During the summer, Beth Israel offers a variety of enjoyable Shabbat programs such as Barbecue and Barchu, a hamburger and hotdog dinner preceding a Kabbalat Shabbat service in the court yard; a Shlomo Carlebach Friday Night Service, a Shabbat in the Park potluck dinner and Shabbat service at County Farm Park; and an instrumental Friday night service.

PET PICNIC

On August 25, pet owners are invited to bring their pets to the synagogue courtyard for a picnic in honor of our animal friends. Both pet owners and people who just love animals are welcome to bring a picnic lunch and join in the fun.

QUIZ NIGHT

A highlight of the programming year is the annual multi-media Beth Israel Quiz Night (January 19.) Adults of all ages compete as teams to answer trivia questions, audio and video clues, and other puzzles in a fun filled, social evening.

SHABBAT, HOLIDAY AND OTHER SPECIAL PROGRAMS AND MEALS

Beth Israel hosts a number of Shabbat and holiday events as a means of getting to know other members of the synagogue community and enhance one's celebration of Shabbat and holidays.

Holiday events include "Pizza in the Hut" on Sukkot, a Simchat Torah Dinner preceding the Torah Processions and an "International Shul of Pancakes Breakfast" offered between the Shaharit Service and the Torah processionals on Simchat Torah. New this year is a Family Havdalah Program. On "Sweatshirt Shabbat" everyone is encouraged to wear a sweatshirt to a winter Shabbat morning service, followed by a cholent kiddush. Each year in December the "Chinese Dinner at House of Israel Kaifeng" is held in the social hall. T Shirt Shabbat in June is followed by a summery kiddush.

SHABBAT MORNING PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN

Beth Israel offers Shabbat morning programs and services for children of all ages. Tot Shabbat meets on the 2nd and 4th Saturday of each month and features a Shabbat celebration for preschoolers with interactive stories and songs, a Torah parade, and a visit from one of the rabbis. Mini-Minyan for children in kindergarten through 2nd grade and Kehillat Shabbat for children in 3rd through 5th grade are participatory services that offer kids a chance to learn and lead Shabbat morning songs and prayers.

HIGH HOLIDAY PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN AND TEENS

High Holiday celebrations begin with a Family Celebration on the afternoon of Erev Rosh Hashanah. Pre-school and early elementary school-age children learn about and celebrate the High Holidays through songs, stories, the sounding of the Shofar, and a special Rosh Hashanah snack.

On the mornings of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur two hour programs for different age groups are held. On the second morning of Rosh Hashanah, a Rosh Hashanah Family Program is held—an informal experience celebrating Rosh Hashanah.

PURIM CELEBRATION

The entire congregation gets into the act by dressing up in costumes (adults as well as children) and participating in a themed Purim Megilla Reading on Erev Purim. Past events include The Muppets Take Beth Israel, Purimworld, and a Charlie Brown Purim. A Purim Carnival with an abridged Megillah reading for children takes place on Purim morning.

INTERFAITH PROGRAMS

Beth Israel is an active member of the interfaith community. Participation in community interfaith events is encouraged and often interfaith educational gatherings are hosted at the synagogue. Beth Israel has supported the Interfaith Round Table of Washtenaw County since its founding in 1995.

PRESCHOOL PROGRAM

Children ages 3 and 4 and a parent are encouraged to join in the fun activities of the Sunday eight session Gan Katan program. Children and parents enjoy stories and activities together. Gan Katan is open to the entire community regardless of synagogue membership.

ELEMENTARY PROGRAM

Grades K–1 meets on Sunday mornings. Grade 2–5 meet on Sunday mornings and Wednesday afternoons.

BIRS students are introduced to Jewish learning through a program rich in Jewish experiences. Music, games, stories, age appropriate prayer, and crafts are all part of the weekly classroom routines. In the elementary grades, students build their knowledge of Hebrew reading, writing and siddur (prayer book) skills each year. The study of conversational Hebrew helps students develop fluid reading skills and appreciate Hebrew as a living language that connects them to the worldwide Jewish community.

Throughout their elementary years, students develop skills and knowledge of text, ethics and values, and Jewish practice. Holidays provide times to celebrate with family or school wide programs. Planned for this year are a Pizza in the Hut Family Dinner, a Family Hanukkah program, School Tu B'shvat Seder, a Family Mitzvah Day, a Purim Celebration and more.

MIDDLE SCHOOL PROGRAM

Grades 6 and 7 meet on Sunday mornings and Wednesday afternoons, and have other programming on selected Shabbat mornings throughout the year. Grade 8 meets on Sunday mornings.

The middle school curriculum includes core courses which focus on Jewish lifecycle, ethics, traditional texts, Hebrew language, tefillah, and history. Semester long electives taught by the teaching or rabbinic staff are academic, but supplemental to the core Judaics curriculum.

Teachers engage students in quality discussions and activities as they explore what it means to live as a Jew today. Coming together as a community each week for tefillot and occasional special activities and celebrations are important parts of the middle school experience. Sixth graders attend an exciting Shabbaton and a series of Shabbat morning sessions. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah Family Series engages students as well as their parents in meaningful learning which facilitates the preparation of students for bar and bat mitzvah individual tutoring.

BIRS works cooperatively with Temple Beth Emeth to offer conversational Hebrew at an immersion level in the middle school. These classes are designed for students who have attended Hebrew Day School in the past, as well as students who have an extensive Hebrew background from other learning experiences. Students whose families are not Beth Israel members are welcome to attend these classes.

Eighth grade students study from a curriculum called The Jewish Lens, and use photography skills to explore their Jewish identity and reflect on their education and experiences. The Kadima Youth Group and Rosh Hodesh: It's a Girl Thing offer middle school students additional opportunities for enrichment and fun.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Students continue to participate in the school and the synagogue throughout their high school careers. The Madrichim Program has two tracks: students in the Educational Assistants Track work with elementary students, and students in the Service Learning Track spend most Sunday mornings volunteering in the community. Students from the two tracks engage in for regular study sessions with the rabbis, and join together for social and group building activities. They may also get involved in other synagogue and community activities, such as: taking Hebrew classes through Keshet Ann Arbor, and participating in Beth Israel's Alternative Spring Break Trip (this year the group is traveling to Philadelphia.) High school students are also encouraged to attend a summer teen program to Israel and may apply for a Ladin Israel Teen Trip Scholarship to help with the expenses.

The annual High School Dinner, which kicks off the year, is Wednesday, August 28, from 6–7:30 p.m.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

The Friday Night Lights program provides families with opportunities to enjoy the community experience of a Kabbalat Shabbat service at 6 p.m. followed by a dairy Shabbat dinner. The cost for dinner is $8 per person, with no charge for children under 4. RSVP's and payment are required on the Monday before each dinner. This year's Friday Night Lights programs will be held: October 4, November 8, February 7, and March 21.

WILD SWAN THEATER

2013-2014 SEASON

(WORLD PREMIERE!)

THE UGLY DUCKLING

October 17 - 19 • (Grades PreK – 2)

Resident playwright Jeff Duncan puts his spin on Hans Christian Andersen's tale of a homely little bird who is looked down on by everyone around him until, much to his delight (and to the surprise of others), he matures into a beautiful swan.

THE FIREBIRD

November 21 - 24 • (Grades K – 5)

Young Ivan, Prince of Russia, must outwit one evil character after another in his quest to find the Firebird who has been stealing the Czar's golden apples. A thrilling version of the classic Russian folktale, features a host of fantastical creatures and Russian folk dancing set to a balalaika score.

OWL'S WINTER

January 23 - 25 • (Grades PreK – 2)

A delightful collection of stories for young children based on Arnold Lobel's Owl at Home. A first introduction to theater especially created to draw young theater goers into the world of theater arts .

UNDER THE AFRICAN SKY

February 11 - 13 • (Age 4 – Grade 3)

A collection of African tales performed through storytelling, acting, dancing, and drumming. Colorful costumes, masks, and traditional music will delight and teach our young fans, with lots of opportunities for audience participation!

COMING TO AMERICA

March 13 - 15 • (Grades 3-8)

A stirring musical production about immigration, following the journeys of four children from different parts of the world who make their way to a new life in America. A beautiful set of songs by Laz Slomovits of Gemini provides the perfect backdrop for these compelling stories.

ONCE UPON A TIME

March 27 - 29 • (Grades Prek – 2)

An engaging collection of favorite children's classics including "Three Billy Goat's Gruff" and "The Three Little Pigs" are sure to delight the very young. In true Wild Swan style, three performers and a musician create all the magic inherent in these timeless stories making this first time theater experience unforgettable.

WIZARD OF OZ

May 1 - 4 • (Grades K – 5)

Adapted for Wild Swan by our resident playwright Jeff Duncan, this non-musical version of L. Frank Baum's beloved story is a treat for the whole family. Join Dorothy and her little dog Toto as they set out on the Yellow Brick Road with their new friends the Scarecrow, the Tinman, and the Cowardly Lion on their way to the fabled land of Oz.

Additional Family Programs offer easy opportunities to celebrate holidays together as a community. Pizza in the Hut on Wednesday, September 25 from 6–7 p.m. includes a pizza dinner in Beth Israel's sukkah. The Family Hanukkah Celebration will take place on Wednesday, December 4, from 6–7 p.m., and the event features entertainment, lighting the candles for the fifth night of Hanukkah, and a latke dinner.

ADULT EDUCATION

Many classes and lectures are offered throughout the year, including weekly study topics in the evening, Wednesday Lunch and Learn sessions, Shabbat Limmud text study classes on the weekly

Torah portion and other topics, special holiday study sessions, a Tikkun Leil Shavuot Study program, educational programs facilitated by Rabbi Dobrusin and Rabbi Blumenthal and adult Hebrew classes jointly sponsored by Temple Beth Emeth. A Yiddish Weekend of academic lectures, cultural activities, and culinary experiences is scheduled for October 18–19. The biennial Alfred and Alice Rosenberg Adult Scholar in Residence Weekend takes place this year on March 28–29. This series of lectures will feature Robert A. Harris, associate professor of Bible at the Jewish Theological Seminary, teaching courses in biblical literature and commentary, particularly medieval Jewish biblical exegesis.

CONGREGATION BETH CHABAD

715 Hill Street 48104
tel: 99-LEARN (995-3276)
website: www.jewmich.com
Rabbi Aharon and Esther Goldstein

Chabad-Lubavitch is a Chassidic movement within Judaism that focuses on the individual's relationship to God and fosters a deep sense of devotion and responsibility toward one's fellow men and women. It is characterized by its emphasis on education and its commitment to lend help wherever it is needed.

The name Chabad is a Hebrew acronym for the three intellectual faculties of: Chachmah (wisdom), Binah (comprehension) and Da'at (knowledge). The Chabad philosophy encourages individuals to understand and recognize the importance and unique mission of each creature, and to refine and govern their every act and feeling through wisdom, comprehension and knowledge.

Chabad House and its Congregation Chabad serve as a "home away from home" for Jewish students, as well as a synagogue and gathering place for families in the Washtenaw County area. Under the guidance of Rabbi Aharon and Esther Goldstein, Congregation Chabad reaches out to all Jews regardless of age, affiliation or level of observance. Located on the University of Michigan campus, Congregation Chabad is dedicated to increasing the understanding and knowledge of Judaism and to actively serving and improving the community.

Jewish education is a high priority at Congregation Chabad, where a wide variety of classes are available on a nearly daily basis. Courses include: Insights into the Torah Portion, Jewish Mysticism (Tanya), Hebrew Language, History and Approaches to Jewish Prayer, Talmud study group, Jewish Law and general topics in Judaism. Everyone is welcome regardless of one's previous background, affiliation and level of knowledge. Classes are free of charge and open to the public. Private classes are also available.

Services are conducted year-round in conformance with traditional Jewish law and practice. Hebrew prayer books are available with English or Russian translations. Shabbat evening services begin 15 minutes before sundown Fridays during the school year and at 7 p.m. during the summer. Shabbat morning services begin at 9:45 a.m. Shabbat afternoon and evening services 40 minutes before sundown year-round. Daily services are held in conjunction with the Hillel Orthodox Minyan, starting at 7:30 a.m. during the week and at 9 a.m. on Sunday. Sunday, Thursday and Friday morning services take place at Chabad House; Monday through Wednesday services are held at Hillel.

Chabad plays an active role in the local Jewish community. Holiday highlights include shofar making at the JCC's Apples and Honey event, Chanukah adult and children's programs, distribution of shalach manot (gift baskets) for Purim and a Passover matzah bakery.

Chabad provides a place where life-cycle events can be commemorated and celebrated. Jewish services offered throughout the year include rabbinical advice; information and help on kosher-

The Jewish Cultural Society (JCS) is a secular humanistic organization, promoting Jewish ethics, values, history, and culture. It provides a community for individuals and families whose Jewish identification is primarily with culture and family. Founded in 1965, the JCS stresses the cultural aspects of Jewish traditions, Jewish history as a source of ethics and strength, and the values of humanism and social justice found in both modern and historical Judaism.

The community offers engaging Sunday school and B'nai Mitzvah programs (pre-K through high school), enriching adult educational and social programs, Jewish holiday celebrations, life cycle events, and social action opportunities. The JCS also runs several community-wide events, including Tu b'Shevat at Matthaei Botanical Gardens, a family Chanukah celebration, and a 2nd Night Passover Seder.

The JCS takes pride in the fact that its membership is diverse. All individuals and families—young and elderly, traditional and nontraditional, Jewish and intercultural—who wish to express their Jewishness from a secular humanistic perspective, are welcome. The JCS celebrates all Jewish holidays (including monthly Shabbat/Havdalah, High Holidays, Chanukah, and Pesach) and life-cycle celebrations through a secular humanistic lens. Jewish tradition is interpreted by focusing on the relationships between people and community efforts to improve the world.

The JCS is based at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor and is affiliated with the Congress of Secular Jewish Organizations, the Michigan Coalition of Secular and Humanistic Jews, and the International Federation of Secular Humanistic Jews.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATIONS

Secular humanistic Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur observances, primarily in English, are offered every fall at the Jewish Community Center and are open to the public. The messages of the High Holiday observances are reflection, responsibility, and forgiveness. The observances are a rededication to communal and individual actions that improve the community and the world. Songs are sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, and English and are led by the JCS choir. JCS observes Tashlich along the banks of the Huron River followed by a community picnic. The JCS community also comes together for a "Break-the-Fast" potluck after Yom Kippur. All observances are free to members and open to the public for a small charge.

Other holiday celebrations are coordinated by Sunday School parents, and include a Sukkot Harvest Celebration, a Chanukah party, and a Purim carnival. A wonderful annual JCS event is the Tu b'Shevat Celebration of Trees at Matthaei Botanical Gardens in the midst of Michigan's winter. This celebrations emphasizes the theme of personal responsibility for the environment and incorporates a walking Seder with fruits and seeds of the Middle East, a scavenger hunt through the gardens, crafts, music, and story-telling. There are also workshops on sustainability, environmental protection, and recycling by local conservation and environmental groups who staff stalls with literature and goods.

The Jewish Cultural Society holds a popular community-wide vegetarian potluck, 2nd Nigh Seder each Passover, using a contemporary Haggadah that was developed by JCS members. The Seder includes songs and poetry and offers a spotlight for JCS students to participate in the readings. The Seder emphasizes the continuing need to work for freedom throughout the world.

SHABBAT OBSERVANCES

The recognition of Shabbat as a time to step away from one's daily life and focus on family is an important part of secular humanistic Jewish practice. The JCS community meets for Shabbat on the first Friday of each month; these celebrations are open to the whole community. Shabbat is celebrated through secular Jewish readings, singing, candle lighting, Challah and wine rituals, and a Yahrtzeit obervance to remember loved ones. Following the Shabbat observance, the community shares a catered dinner from a local Ann Arbor restaurant. After dinner, educational or social programs are offered such as discussing a topic of interest, playing Jewish Jeopardy for Jewish Literacy month, or participating in a community service activity. The First Friday Shabbat is celebrated at the JCC and participants of all ages are welcome.

Tot Shabbat is run concurrently with the First Friday Shabbat Observance at the JCC. Tot Shabbat is a wonderful way to welcome in the weekend with other families of early elementary-age and younger children. Following Tot Shabbat, the youngsters join their parents for dinner before making holiday-themed crafts, reading stories, and singing songs with the Tzofim who help run the Tot Shabbat program.

introspection of Shabbat and the activity of the rest of the week. Celebrated at members' homes, the community begins Havdalah with a modern, secular humanistic observance. Following the Havdalah observance, JCS families welcome the new week with a potluck dinner. Children are welcome to participate in the celebration of Havdalah.

LIFE CYCLE OBSERVANCES

Life cycle observances, a central part of the JCS community life, includes baby namings, bar and bat mitzvah celebrations, weddings, funerals, memorials, and unveilings. Julie Gales, the JCS's madrikha, develops these ceremonies by collaborating with the families to create a personal and meaningful experience. Gales also presides over the events. The JCS's Memorial Garden is at Arborcrest Cemetery in northeast Ann Arbor.

Second grade students have a special Shabbat ceremony dedicated to affirming their Jewish names. This annual community-wide life cycle event provides the second grade class with the opportunity to learn about the people for whom they are named and, in the case of some students, to choose a Hebrew name for themselves.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

JCS maintains an active schedule of educational activities for our members and the broader community from pre-K through adult.

ADULT ACTIVITIES

The community offers Sunday morning adult education programs monthly throughout the school year. Sunday Schmoozes provide an opportunity for all members of the Ann Arbor Jewish community to meet local scholars and community leaders for an informal discussion of Jewish topics and politics.

Recent topics have emphasized secular humanistic Judaism, approaches to Middle East peace, environmental sustainability, improving family life, social action/social justice issues, Jewish cooking, the roots of Chanukah, and historic, political, or current events.

An adult B'nai Mitzvah class is also offered. Participants, in collaboration with the leader, plan the curriculum content and pace. The adult Mitzvah ceremony culminates the approximately two-year program.

In addition to the social action activities and adult education, the JCS holds regular social activities for adult members like Pourin' for Purim (an annual wine and cheese event). The JCS's monthly Rosh Chodesh gatherings celebrate the new Jewish month through a short celebration, discussions, and socializing among the community's women. Some of the Rosh Chodesh activities include the annual Apple Cake Bake for the High Holidays, sharing books for Jewish Book Month, and Rejuvenating Our Spirits at Chanukah.

The Jewish Cultural Society's Third Friday Chavurah for the community's older members takes the form of a montly potluck held in roration at the homes of its members. Meeting regularly since the 1980s, the group has spawned close friendships and lively conversations.

JEWISH CULTURAL SCHOOL

The Jewish Cultural School (Pre-K through 7th grade) is the Sunday school program of the JCS. JCS's goal is to expose their students to the vast scope of Jewish life over 4000 years on six continents and to engender in them an appreciation for Jewish history, culture and ethics. Learning is participatory and active. Students dance, sing, create art, cook, and hear and tell stories. The school runs from September to May.

Jewish holidays are discussed with emphasis on their relevance today. The children also study Jewish life in biblical times and the Middle Ages; Jewish culture in Europe, the Middle East and America; anti-Semitism and the Holocaust; and Secular Humanistic Jewish philosophers. Field trips (such as the 6th grade annual trip to the Holocaust Museum in Farmington Hills) and simulations (such as the bi-annual Ellis Island reenactment) are integrated into the curriculum at every level. English, students are introduced to basic key words in Hebrew and Yiddish. The curriculum continually evolves with the help of student, parent, and teacher input. In this way, the school supports our students in the development of a positive Jewish identity.

Parent involvement in the Jewish Cultural School is welcome and encouraged. Parents actively participate in their children's education by teaching, helping in their child's classroom, or helping in the planning and running of holiday celebrations.

B'NAI MITZVAH PROGRAM

The Jewish Cultural School B'nai Mitzvah Program offers a truly unique and meaningful way to transition children into Jewish communal life. This program begins in sixth grade and is a two-year process that includes independent research on Jewish topics of interest chosen by the students. Participants distill the information into short oral presentations given at the First Friday Shabbat observance or other gatherings of the families of the B'nai Mitzvah class. The topics cover everything from Masada to shtetl life in Russia to Marc Chagall to Black/Jewish relations in the Civil Rights Movement. The students also research their own families' stories, and work on a Jewish Identity Project that helps them to solidify their own ideas about what it means to be Jewish. In keeping with the Secular Humanistic Jewish emphasis on social justice, there is a 30-hour community service commitment to a project chosen by the student. Students volunteer for Meals on Wheels, Lurie Terrace, Peace Neighborhood Center, and many other local organizations.

This effort culminates in a bar or bat mitzvah celebration, usually during the seventh grade. Each ceremony is a unique collaboration written by the students and their parents with help from the Julie Gales, the JCS's madrikha, who preside over the events. The mitzvah celebrations are held at the Jewish Community Center or another location of the bar/bat mitzvah family's choice.

After bar or bat mitzvah, students are encouraged to continue in the eighth grade, join the Tzofim Program, and become Sunday school tzofim (classroom aides), providing a vehicle for them to maintain active in the JCS.

OLDER YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Jewish learning continues after bar or bat mitzvah with the Tzofim (teen leadership) Program for students grades 8-12. The program includes leadership development, student led social action projects, and group activities. The program also provides an opportunity for students to work as aides in the classroom and at community-wide events. The post bar/bat mitzvah age youth also attend the annual Congress of Secular Jewish Organizations' conference that takes place each Memorial Day weekend in different locations across North America. Tzofim plan social action events together, organize social action projects open to the broader, and help plan and staff holiday programs.

SOCIAL ACTION

Social action is at the heart of Secular Humanistic Judaism. A firm belief that Jews are responsible and accountable for one's own history, actions, and future motivates JCS members to view tikkun olam, (repairing the world,) as a very high priority.

The Social Action Committee (SAC) of JCS is active in tikkun olam by keeping members up to date about current issues of interest. JCS members are encouraged to speak freely about all social issues, no matter how controversial. The JCS community believes that respectful, open dialogue with each other is the best way to solve problems.

JCS students participate in tzedakah at Sunday school. Each class identifies a social action project of interest and raise tzedakah money to donate. Community service is also a major part of the bar/bat mitzvah program. Anyone interested in social action should contact Bob Davidow and Susan Grubb, the JCS Social Action Committee chairs, to learn more about current social action projects at the community email address, jcs@jccfed.org.

Pardes Hannah, Ann Arbor's Jewish Renewal Community, provides an intimate setting to enter deeply into prayerthrough chanting, kabbalistic meditation, movement, traditional davening, and open-hearted engagement with Torah. Pardes Hannah offers Shabbat morning and Kabbalat Shabbat services, Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur services and a variety of spiritual and educational study sessions and celebrations throughout the cycle of the Jewish year.

Pardes Hannah meets the 2nd Shabbat of the month for Shabbat morning services held at Beth Israel Annex, 2010 Washtenaw Avenue. Several times a year we will alternate and meet for Kabbalat Shabbat and pot luck dinners at members homes. Services and other activities are lead by Rabbi Elliot Ginsburg, founder and spiritual leader of Pardes Hannah, and other skilled leaders in the group. Check the website for dates, location and more information. In the tradition of Jewish Renewal communities (see www.aleph.org), Pardes Hannah is committed to strengthening the three pillars of Jewish life—prayer, study, and action. The goals of Jewish Renewal are to empower individuals to respond to the call of Torah and to provide the resources that assist individuals and communities in the search for a meaningful, Jewish spiritual practice. Jewish Renewal draws on the well- springs of Jewish tradition, on sacred texts, mystical practices, historical currents, artistic expression, and individuals' own inner truths..

Temple Beth Emeth is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism, committed to enhancing religious life in Ann Arbor through religious, spiritual, cultural, educational, social action, and social programming. The congregation strives to create a sense of family, a "caring community," for all its members—a place in which its members can celebrate their joys or share difficult moments surrounded by people who care.

This year, TBE will embark on a year of leadership. As TBE goes through a year of transition, fostering leadership at every level is a high priority. Throughout the year, there will be an adult learning series on the leadership of Jewish prophets and sages, a practical leadership series on "Leading from the Inside Out," a continuation of the Beit Café: Adult Education Night series and much more. In November, TBE will host Dr. Leonard Felder, psychologist and author, to discuss the spiritual aspects of leadership. This year begins with a congregational picnic on Sunday, August 25.

TBE continues to meet the needs of a diverse congregation by providing a spectrum of Shabbat services that meet the various needs and spiritual journeys of its members. Every Friday evening, Shabbat begins with Tot Shabbat at a new time, 6 p.m. Parents and children are invited for dinner at 6:30 p.m. Dinner concludes with a popsicle oneg. At 7:30 p.m. there is a service using the Reform prayer book, Mishkan Tefilah.

Shabbat morning begins with a Torah study led by Rabbi Levy or Rabbi Delson at 8:50 a.m. On weeks without a bar or bat mitzvah, Kaddish will be said at the conclusion of Torah Study. TBE clergy lead Shabbat morning services in the sanctuary at 10 a.m. on weeks when there is a bar or bat mitzvah. Prayer is the heart of the congregation.

There also are opportunities for Shabbat celebrations through the year, such as Social Action Shabbat, Brotherhood Shabbat on October 4, Sisterhood Shabbat on February 28, a Shabbat service honoring New Members and those who have been in the congregation for over 36 years. A detailed schedule of services is posted on the TBE website.

Holidays provide the perfect venue for festive events. TBE has a family Sukkot picnic with sukkah decorating. Simchat Torah combines two events, an early celebration with singing and dance, and a later adult Torah study. The Family Chanukah Service and the Brotherhood Latke Dinner have become TBE traditions, with families bringing their menorahs to light during the service. The Second Night Seder celebrates Passover in the spirit of community. A meaningful Yom HaShoah/Holocaust Memorial Service is written and led by the Generations After group, children of survivors.

MUSIC

ADULT CHOIR

Jewish music plays an important role at TBE under the direction of Cantor Annie Rose. The adult choir, Kol Halev, sings during High Holy Day services, on a monthly basis at Friday night services and at concerts and in nursing homes throughout the year. Veterans of two international concert tours and several concerts with the Ann Arbor Symphony, Kol Halev also present concerts throughout Michigan, including a concert with the adult choir of St. Clare's Episcopal Church.

YOUTH, MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL ENSEMBLES

The Youth Choir, with members in grades 3-5, performs in services and concerts at the temple and in the community. The annual Main Street Sing is a highlight for singers and families.

Middle School Shir Chadash and High School Shir Chadash, the student choral and instrumental ensembles, perform in services and concerts and periodically hold "Cafe" evenings of music in an informal cafe atmosphere.

A late-winter concert by all four ensembles, on Sunday, February 9, is one of the highlights of the year.

SOCIAL ACTION

The mission of the Social Action Committee of Temple Beth Emeth is to assist the congregation in applying Jewish values to promoting social justice through aid, education, and advocacy. These efforts to promote tikkun olam are concentrated on selected issues each year that are of concern to local or global communities. Social action has a prominent role at TBE, taking many forms.

The committee's priorities for involvement and programs for the coming year include: Hunger and Poverty, Women's Rights Issues in Israel and, a continued focus on Israel – Palestine relations. TBE, in partnership with St. Clare's Episcopal Church, is hosting the 40th annual Washtenaw County CROP Walk for World Hunger on Sunday, October 6.

Ongoing activities include supporting and working at The Back Door Food Pantry, jointly run with St. Clare's Episcopal Church, maintaining the Food for Faith vegetable garden for the pantry located on the congregation's property, longtime involvement with the local Interfaith Hospitality Network/Alpha House, volunteering twice-monthly at the Delonis Center, and the fifth year partnership with the Shelter Association's Rotating Shelter during Thanksgiving week.

SISTERHOOD AND BROTHERHOOD

The Sisterhood is a vibrant organization with broad-based activities that support both its members and the congregation as a whole. Members also run the gift shop that offers a wide selection of Judaica, gifts, and special order items. Brotherhood is both a service and educational

ADULT EDUCATION/PROGRAMS

Jewish learning is a life-long pursuit that takes on many forms. This year, TBE is focusing adult education on the study of leadership. Preparing Your Heart for the High Holy Days will kick off the year with a learning session entitled, "Journey to Personal Leadership" on August 31, at 8 p.m. followed by Havdallah and S'lichot services at 9 p.m. The Beit Café series highlights the knowledge and wisdom held within the congregation. These sessions are held every other month beginning in November free of charge.

TBE also offers a wide variety of educational opportunities for adults, at every entry point. They include semester courses in special topics, study with Rabbi Levy, Cantor Rose and Rabbi Delson, weekly Shabbat Morning Torah Study, a Shabbaton (extended Shabbat programming) with a scholar-in-residence, book clubs, bi-monthly Men's and Women's Torah Study, educational holiday programs, and a themed lecture series. Cantor Rose will again be facilitating a Spirituality Book Club this year, offered as both on an evening and daytime class. Programs are open to temple members and to members of the community-at-large. For information, call 665-4744. Stay connected to TBE through the website and become a "friend" on Facebook.

CARING COMMUNITY

The Caring Community program provides a congregation-wide opportunity to serve fellow congregants in times of joy and sorrow. Through the Caring Community Volunteer Corps (CCVC) congregants assist each other with meals for families with new babies, for congregants that are ill or recovering from surgery, or for a house of mourning. CCVC also provides rides during the day to doctor's appointments and rides to and from services and events at TBE.

Bikkur Cholim provides visits to members of the TBE community who are hospitalized, in nursing or assisted living centers, or at home. Nachamu (TBE's Bereavement Group) conducts shiva services at congregants' homes and provides training for others to participate in this mitzvah. Caregiver support groups meet to support adult children caring for parents living locally and out of town.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

Services and special celebrations are planned throughout the year on festivals and other holidays. During Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, the congregation offers traditional services along with family services, youth services, and a special service for tots and their parents. High Holy Day Services are held at Pease Auditorium on the EMU campus on both Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre, and the mornings of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Afternoon and concluding Yom Kippur Services return to the temple on Packard Street. There are separate services each holiday for AARTY (Grades 9-12). Community members may purchase tickets by contacting the office or using the order form on the website.University students are welcome to attend the services at no charge. Call the office to arrange for tickets.

Sukkot and Simchat Torah include an outdoor sukkah decorating party, services, Israeli dancing and multiple adult study opportunities. The Brotherhood sponsors a latke dinner each Chanukah, which is followed by a service lit by everyone's menorahs. On December 25, the congregation always sponsors a movie at the Michigan Theater.

In the spring, a large annual second night Seder is held. Every year, the Generations After group (TBE children & relatives of survivors) write a meaningful Yom Hashoah service for the observance of Holocaust Remembrance Day and a supplemental afternoon service for Yom Kippur. Spring brings a fun megillah reading and Purim carnival. Shavuot brings the special confirmation service that is written and led by the confirmation class as well as an evening of adult study.

TOT PROGRAMS

TBE offers a weekly 6 p.m. Tot Shabbat service conducted by Rabbi Robert Levy and Cantor Annie Rose followed by a special dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tot Chanukah, held in conjunction with the annual family service has become a popular event, and tot activities are part of the annual Purim carnival. Caring Community provides baby bags to welcome the newest members of the TBE community. The tot-friendly website offers songs, stories, and blessings: www.tbetots.org.

SOCIAL OPPORTUNITIES

TNT, the 20s and 30s group at TBE for young Jewish adults, single or married, meets for both cultural and social events. Trivia Nights, Sushi in the Sukkah, Esther's Underground Purim Party, potluck Shabbat dinners, and volunteering at community organizations are some of the events done over the past few years. TNT frequently co-sponsors events with other local Jewish young adult groups including a new partnership with J-Hub. The

TEMPLE BETH EMETH RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

tel: 665-5817
Terri Ginsburg, director
tginsburg@templebethemeth.org

Temple Beth Emeth strives to educate its students to become proficient in the skills needed to be life-long Jewish learners. TBE believes that this is best accomplished within the framework of a vibrant Jewish community. TBE provides students with a curriculum based on Reform Jewish educational philosophy in a manner that is creative, engaging and intellectually stimulating. TBE employs high-quality teachers who are knowledgeable, enthusiastic and committed to Judaism. TBE involves the families of its students in a variety of exciting family education programs.

The Religious and Hebrew School programs serve students from preschool age through grade 12. The curriculum includes studies in areas such as customs and traditions, Torah, holidays, life cycle, prayer, music, history, theology, Israel, immigration, comparative Judaism, the Holocaust and Jewish ethics. The curriculum is based upon recommendations from the Union of Reform Judaism.

LOWER GRADES

Religious School for preschool-5th grade students is held at TBE on Saturday mornings in two sessions: 8:30–10:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. –12:30 p.m. Shabbat mornings are filled with singing, Israeli dance, stories, the study of Jewish history, Torah, Israel, mitzvot, ethics and holidays. Each grade has a different focus and our approach is an active hands-on one where students are guided in their learning by teachers who are knowledgeable and have a love of Judaism.

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

A monthly parent-child class focusing on Jewish holidays and home rituals is available for three-year-olds. There are family social and educational programs for each grade level. We offer parenting workshops on a variety of topics throughout the year. A Jewish artist is invited to perform for students and their families each year. On Shabbat morning there is an adult Torah study session, followed by services in the chapel, during the first session of Religious School. These activities help to develop a sense of community and encourage parents to continue their own educational growth.

HEBREW

Students are introduced to the Hebrew alphabet in second grade, and formal Hebrew School begins in third grade and continues through sixth grade. The Hebrew program focuses on Hebrew reading skills and an understanding of the meaning and structure of the prayers. Students are introduced to conversational Hebrew and grammar. TBE offers Conversational Hebrew in 8th grade and many of TBE's high school students study Conversational Hebrew through Keshet, the Community Resource Hebrew Program sponsored by TBE and the Jewish Federation of Washtenaw County.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH TRAINING

Cantor Annie Rose supervises the b'nai mitzvah training program. Students work with private tutors and meet with the cantor at the end of each aliyah. The rabbis also meet with students to work on their drash/speech.

MUSIC

Students enjoy a strong Jewish music program, led by experienced song leaders as part of the weekly Saturday morning program. Cantor Annie Rose leads a Youth Choir for students in grades 3–5 and Shir Chadash, vocal and instrumental groups for middle and high school students. These musical groups are very popular and meet at times that are coordinated with Hebrew and Religious School sessions. The students have a variety of opportunities to perform throughout the year.

MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Sixth through 12th grades have class on Sunday evenings from 6–7:30 p.m. The 170 students participating in this program enjoy sharing pizza and social time before the formal class session begins. 7th graders study mitzvot and participate in a variety of social action projects. The 8th grade class, which studies modern Jewish history, ends with a trip to Jewish New York. The 10th grade confirmation class is taught by Rabbis Levy and Delson and culminates in a beautiful Shabbat service which is written and led by the students. Eleventh and twelfth grade seminar options include courses such as "Jews on the Edge," "Repair the World: Being the Change" and "Family Relations in the Book of Genesis."

MADRICHIM PROGRAM

Ninth grade students participate in a year-long training program, which prepares them for working as a madrich/a (classroom aide). Students in grades 10–12 work as office or classroom aides. Fifty-one madrichim worked in the classrooms last year.

ADVANCED HEBREW STUDY FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

High school students are able to receive public school credit (through the Community Resource program) for studying Hebrew language. There were 26 students involved in the Keshet Hebrew CR program last year.

cultural, social action, social events, and opportunities for Jewish learning outside of the classroom. Religious events include planning their own High Holiday and Shabbat services. Social action opportunities include organizing TBE's annual High Holiday Food Drive; participating in the Trick-or-Can Drive on Halloween; baking and selling cookies to raise money for local non-profits; and volunteering at Mitzvah Day and local non-profits. Affiliated with the North American Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY), AARTY participants have the opportunity to attend several regional events where they can learn and socialize with Jewish youth from around Michigan.

Additional opportunities include a NFTY-sponsored leadership camp in New York, intensive Hebrew summer camp in Wisconsin, outdoor biking and camping trips, Mitzvah Corps programs, and trips to Israel.

TBE offers an Alternative Spring Break program for 10th–12th graders. Along with Rabbi Delson, this group will spend several days in Detroit with "Summer In the City," a Detroit-based non-profit.

KADIMA—MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

Middle school students meet on a monthly basis for programs in the social action, religious, cultural and social areas. Kadima members meet with their advisor to design and plan their programs. Activities include joint programming with other middle school-age youth groups from Reform temples in the region. Recent programs have included a shul-in, visits to area attractions, holiday services and retreats.

RISHONIM—3RD–5TH GRADERS

Rishonim meets monthly to give 4th and 5th graders an opportunity to socialize in a setting outside of religious school. Events include holiday celebrations and other social activities.

ZINNHOUSE (JEWISH-INTERFAITH)

tel: 239-1901
email: laurenzinn@gmail.com
website: www.zinnhouse.com

ZinnHouse offers a unique Jewish-Interfaith perspective serving primarily, but not only, Jewish-Intermarried families. Based on extensive practice, ZinnHouse encourages faith development by combining attention to learning Jewish essentials with intention to nurturing "interfaith opportunities."

PROGRAMS

- The Hebrew Play Group, a spiritual and religious educational program via classes or tutoring for kids ages 7–14 focusing on Hebrew literacy, mitzvah coming of age preparation, and philosophy for children
- SOULutions (a mussar-inspired study group) and Embrace Death (a study group to process and prepare) for adults of all backgrounds
- Custom interfaith ceremonies, Jewbilation services, and holiday celebrations
- Coaching locally and abroad for singles, couples, grandparents, and families as they balance multiple inherited/adopted traditions while "fiddling on the roof"

Lauren Zinn builds on years of experience teaching both kids and adults, facilitating groups, designing instruction, and leading services as well as raising her children in an interfaith marriage. Zinn holds a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan in interdisciplinary educational planning, an masters degree in philosophy, and received ordination from Rabbi Joseph H. Gelberman of The All Faiths Seminary. She currently serves on the board of The Interfaith Round Table of Washtenaw County and is the creator and annual organizer of Faces of Faith, a community-wide interfaith opportunity.

Rachael Hoffenblum, Older Adults program coordinator

The Jewish Community Center's Older Adult Program, known as SPICE (Social, Physical, Intellectual, Cultural and Educational), offers a wide range of activities for older adults. The SPICE program is a unique resource for the Jewish community, providing information, involvement, and opportunities for developing new friendships as well as welcoming newcomers moving to the Ann Arbor area. It validates the talent and expertise of older adults and welcomes all who want to add some "SPICE" to their life.

The SPICE program provides a range of social, educational, and cultural programming for seniors, including workshops, presentations, and holiday celebrations. Regularly scheduled programming includes exercise, games and crafts, current event discussions and special presentations by community members. Adults who come to SPICE enjoy homemade dairy lunches two days a week. Periodically, special events such as concerts and classes take place on several other days of the week. Additionally, health monitoring, information and prevention events such as blood pressure checks, memory screening and immunizations are offered. A variety of volunteer activities offer seniors additional ways to socialize and participate in the Jewish community.

The JCC is home to many senior activities that are collaborations with other local organizations. The annual Afternoon Delights series at the JCC features members of the Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra. Intergenerational activities are held with the JCC Early Childhood Center and the Hebrew Day School. Care Response, a local health care provider hosts monthly blood pressure checks free of charge.

J STREET ANN ARBOR

email:annarbor@jstreet.org
website: www.jstreet.org
Rebecca Kanner, contact

J Street is the political home for pro-Israel, pro-peace Americans fighting for the future of Israel as the democratic homeland of the Jewish people. Members believe that Israel's Jewish and democratic character depend on a two-state solution, resulting in a Palestinian state living alongside Israel in peace and security.

Rooted in a commitment to Jewish and democratic values, J Street is redefining what it means to be pro-Israel in America. The group's goal is to change the U.S. political dynamics around Israel by mobilizing broad support for a two-state solution, believing it's in Israel's and America's interest. JCS also believes they are expanding support for Israel by affirming — along with many Israelis — that being pro-Israel doesn't require supporting every policy of its government.

J Street Ann Arbor is the grassroots arm of national J Street. The group's mission is to amplify, promote, and organize around the J Street mission by building and expanding the base of J Street supporters, advocating to members of Congress, working with rabbis, synagogues and communal institutions, and organizing events and programming at the community level.

RAOUL WALLENBERG ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE

915 East Washington St., 48109
tel: 615-2133
email: jillmcd@umich.edu
Dr. Jill McDonough, director of Development and Alumni Relations

Raoul Wallenberg proved to the world that one person can make a difference in the face of evil. A Swedish citizen who graduated with the highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1935, Wallenberg volunteered during World War II to serve as a U.S. envoy in Hungary. There, his incomparable personal courage and ingenuity saved 100,000 Jewish lives. Today Raoul Wallenberg is recognized as one of the great humanitarians of the twentieth century; he is also one of the University of Michigan's most distinguished alumni.

The Wallenberg Endowment funds an annual lecture and medal presentation to honor this international hero, whose character was partly shaped by his years in school here. Since 1990, this endowed program at the University of Michigan has awarded an annual Wallenberg Medal to an individual whose humanitarian actions exemplify those of Raoul Wallenberg. The medalist program has brought the twentieth century's most outstanding humanitarians to campus to tell their stories.

Wallenberg Medal recipients include, among others, Nobel laureates Elie Wiesel; His Holiness the Dalai Lama; Miep Gies, the woman who supported Anne Frank and her family in hiding; and Helen Suzman, a member of the South African parliament.

The Wallenberg Committee deeply believes that young people must be told the story of Raoul Wallenberg. When Wallenberg's sister, Nina Lagergren, came from Sweden in the fall of 2001 to accept the Wallenberg Medal on behalf of her brother, she emphasized in her lecture the importance of reaching out to young people. It is, after all, the best way to begin to change the world. The Wallenberg Committee believes that the example of Raoul Wallenberg can turn young people from helpless cynicism to resolute hopefulness and to awaken them to the belief that one person can make a difference.

Elliot H. Gertel, facilitator

Spend a heymish hour in der alter heym speaking and listening to mame-loshn, Yiddish. This informal conversational group, which has been meeting at various venues on and near the University of Michigan central campus for the last several years, is free and open to all lovers of Yiddish language and culture, no matter what level of proficiency, regardless of age, and whether affiliated with the university or not. All manner of topics are discussed, with an effort to improve participants' Yiddish speaking skills, especially vocabulary. Everyone is welcome to join in at any time, or to just listen. Bring your own lunch, if you like, or purchase something from the café. Iz, kumt un hot hanoe.

The group meets every Tuesday (except major Jewish holidays and January 1, July 4, and the last week of December) all year round at 1:30 p.m. at Beanster's Café, ground floor near the North University entrance in the Michigan League, 911 North University.

TBE Sisterhood is also the Ann Arbor chapter of Women of Reform Judaism. In addition to social occasions, the group organizes a variety of activities and programs that support congregational, local and international WRJ initiatives. Active volunteers make for a friendly and welcoming way for women to engage in TBE community life. Non-TBE members are also welcome to join.

Sweet Beginnings is an award-winning "review party" on the first day of Hebrew School in the fall. Each bar and bat mitzvah receives a kiddush cup from Sisterhood, and college students receive gift packages at Chanukah and Purim. First-time Jewish campers receive scholarship support. Sisterhood contributes to the TBE Youth Advisor's salary, to AARTY convention travel, and additional funds to the TBE religious school.

The entire Jewish Community is welcome to shop at the Sisterhood-run TBE Gift Shop which carries a wide variety of Judaica in a broad price range. The shop isopen Mondays and Wednesdays during Hebrew School, Fridays before services, and Sundays, 5:30–7 p.m. It is also open by appointment; contact Amy Paberzs (668-6842; amypab@hotmail.com).

Local non-profits receive donations or support through Sisterhood. Members also cook and staff the Ronald McDonald House during Christian holidays.

Through the WRJ affiliation, Sisterhood contributes to the Hebrew Union Collage (rabbinic and cantorial scholarships), the Jewish Braille Institute, the World Union for Progressive Judaism (WUPJ), and several Reform nursery schools in Israel. Sisterhood board members benefit from WRJ leadership training and resource sharing at district and national meetings.

In addition to these programs, the group has informal monthly dinners and lunches, afternoon and evening mahj groups, biweekly Women's Torah Study, a Book/Movie Club, periodic lectures, workshops, trips and activities. This year's welcoming brunch will be held Sunday, September 22.

The chapter holds several major events during the year. The Fall Opening event will be held on Sunday, October 6. The event will be a brunch with the theme "Celebrating Jewish Cultural Diversity Within a Single People." ORT's Fall Brunch will feature Sephardi and Mizrachi recipes that developed among the Jews settling in Greece, Turkey, the Middle East, and North Africa. Our speaker will tell us about the wonderful programs World ORT sponsors in Israel.

The Donor dinner will take place in Spring, 2014, (date tba). This year's dinner will celebrate the Ann Arbor Chapter's 30th Anniversary. Members and prospective members are encouraged to attend to learn more about ORT and to socialize with old and new friends.

Members of the Ann Arbor ORT chapter may join the monthly Book Group, which discusses books of Jewish content. The Cinema Club also meets monthly for dinner and a movie. Greeting cards and tributes, for all occasions and holidays, are available from the chapter. Annual donations of $54 or more are requested to help World ORT fund its important programs.

Each year, over 300,000 students in over 60 countries are trained and empowered by ORT's cutting-edge curriculum and strategic education initiatives. Closer to home, the Hermelin ORT Resource Center in West Bloomfield offers a wide range of classes and programs, including the very successful Better Jobs Opportunity Program, which provides job skills training to the unemployed and under-employed in southeastern Michigan.

HILLEL CAMPUS ALLIANCE OF MICHIGAN

The Hillel Campus Alliance of Michigan is an alliance of campus Hillel's throughout Michigan. Serving students across the state since August 2007, HCAM is building dynamic and vibrant Jewish communities for Jewish students at Alma College, Albion College, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Grand Valley State University, Kalamazoo College, Michigan Technological University, Northern Michigan University and Western Michigan University. Hillel staff meets with student leaders to determine their vision for Jewish life on their specific campus and works closely with those leaders to make their vision a reality. As an organization, HCAM supports students with the tools to create vibrant Jewish life including funding, day-to-day staff supervision and student leadership development. HCAM also provides students with travel opportunities, internship and volunteer programs and the chance to participate in a variety of student leadership conferences. For more information on HCAM, visit www.h-cam.net (new site coming in August of 2013).

University of Michigan Hillel is unparalleled in terms of its size, diversity and quality of programming. Our Hillel supports 60 independent student groups, spanning the full breadth of Jewish life. Each group provides opportunities for students to become involved as leaders, driving the programming and decision-making forward for their group and community. Students build leadership, engagement, and community-organizing skills through our Hillel that benefit them in their roles on campus, in finding employment, and in life long after they graduate.

Each group also provides the opportunity for students to access a community that meets their individual needs. With 60 student groups, students can find opportunities to explore their identities and interests in a safe, supportive, fun and nurturing environment. Our programming covers social, political, religious, cultural and educational areas, all intended to help students access Jewish life and community on their own terms. We offer concerts, lectures, films, classes, community service, yoga, religious services, discussion groups, dialogue, free Shabbat dinners for students, and a full kosher meal program. We also take more students to Israel on Taglit-Birthright Israel than any other Hillel in the country.

You can come to Hillel to hang out, catch a movie, eat delicious meals, study, hold a group meeting or do yoga. But Hillel is not just confined to our building. You can experience Hillel in coffee shops, in residence halls, on the Diag, in your own home, in Israel or in Detroit. Drop in or contact us to learn more about how to get connected. Or come to us with a new idea we can help you grow for your community. Hillel is what you make it.

ISRAEL GROUPS AND PROGRAMS

AMI, the American Movement for Israel, sponsors educational, political and cultural events and programs to promote support and understanding of Israel and its people.

iLead (Israel Leadership), focuses on Israel, education, advocacy and engagement skill building among student leaders.

JStreet Umich promotes progressive social and political issues and peace initiatives. The group also co-sponsors dialogue and discussion with other student groups on campus.

TAMID: Israel Investment Group,pioneers the next generation of American commitment to Israel by connecting business-minded students with the Israeli economy.

U-M Hillel's Taglit-Birthright Israel trip provides an opportunity for an exhilarating free 10-day visit to Israel for students 18–26 during Winter break or in May.

Masa Israel Internship - Masa means journey in Hebrew and Masa interns connects students on campus to study abroad, post-college, and volunteer programs in Israel.

JEWISH LEARNING

From weekly classes (Talmud, Radical Jewish Ideas, Waffles and Wisdom, and more) to informal discussions to dialogue groups there is always Jewish learning going on at Hillel. How does Judaism fit into who you are becoming? How does your learning influence your beliefs? Hillel can help you with these big questions.

Shulchan Ivrit provides a weekly opportunity for students of all levels of proficiency to speak Hebrew together.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Hillel offers a variety of religious services on Friday nights and holidays:, creative, musical Reform services; an egalitarian Conservative minyan; and Shalvah, a spirited "partnership minyan" with Carlebach melodies. The Orthodox minyan which serves students, faculty, and community members also holds daily services.

OTHER PROGRAMS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Kol HaKavod is U-M Hillel's a cappella singing group. The ensemble performs a varied repertoire of close harmonies in English, Hebrew, and Ladino, with music taken from Jewish liturgical and historical sources, Israeli folk songs, and translated popular tunes.

SHOUT, Students Honoring Outstanding University Teaching, conducts a campus-wide nomination process in order to select the year's recipient of the Golden Apple Award. The winning U-M teacher, in addition to receiving a Golden Apple trophy and a cash prize, delivers his or her ideal "last lecture." The Golden Apple Award is sponsored by Hillel and Apple Computer Inc. and is co-sponsored by more 20 U-M academic units and student groups.

Consider Magazine is a publication presenting different viewpoints on a variety of issues, both local and international. It is available in racks at Hillel and in most major university buildings.

J-GAME: The Jewish Graduate student program consists of several organizations that serve Jewish graduate students. These organizations are based both on professional schools and interests: JAGS (Jewish Association of Graduate Students), JLSA (Jewish Law Student Association), RJSA (Ross Jewish Students Association), OJSW (Organization of Jewish Social Workers), JeMSA (Jewish Medical Students Association), J-GAME Israel, J-GAME Social Events, J-GAME Jewish Learning, J-GAME Sports, and J-GAME Friday Night Dinners. Students can choose to be on as many or as few of these lists as possible. These groups meet frequently, offering a setting for graduate students to meet their peers.

Ahava, the Jewish Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgendered and Queer student group, offers programming, discussion groups, speakers and social events that meet the needs of the diverse Jewish LGBTQ community on campus.

The Conference on the Holocaust (COTH) is a year-long series of events planned by students designed to present a cross-section of scholarly, personal, historical and theological perspectives on the Holocaust. COTH organizes an annual Survivors' Luncheon, which hosts over 40 survivors and 300 students.

rorities and fraternities. The group sponsors social action projects and hosts Shabbat dinners and social events.

Hillel Sports fields a broad range of teams that compete in the U-M's intramural sports program. Hillel also sponsors the Hillel Ice Hockey Team and competes in the Kaufman Cup, a series of sporting events with MSU Hillel.

Maize and Blue Games is a student group designed to improve the lives of children in Detroit through hosting competitive sports tournaments for U-M students to participate in, and donating all raised funds to Youthville Detroit, a youth center dedicated to "developing youth and enhancing their well-being."

Hillel's Dance Group is a competitive dance troupe on campus that is Shabbat friendly and provides an opportunity for students to express themselves through dance.

The Yiddish Club was established to create a social Yiddish experience on campus. The group meets to speak in Yiddish, read the Froward Yiddish newspaper and explore the rich tradition of Yiddish culture.

Hillel Players is a student-driven theatre that engages with the Jewish experience. Hillel Players is committed to supporting individual talents, ensuring that each member is responsible for meaningful, vital work.

Sarah's Kitchen, also called "Hillel's Café," serves gourmet kosher lunches and dinners Sunday-Friday during the academic year. U-M students on board contract in a residence hall can use their "Blue Bucks" to pay for meals, and anyone can eat at Hillel on a walk-in basis. Friday night Shabbat dinners are available to U-M students at no charge.

Challah for Hunger raises awareness of and money for hunger and disaster relief through the baking and selling of challah.

MuJew brings Muslim and Jewish students together on campus in dialogue. There is also an annual alternative spring break trip to help build the MuJew community.

The Jewish Penicillin Hotline (iwantsoup@umich.edu) delivers kosher chicken soup with matzoh balls to any U-M student who is feeling sick.

The Jewish Women's Forum explores women's roles in Judaism, offering study groups, speakers, Rosh Hodesh celebrations, and an annual women's seder.

Alternative Spring Breaks are an opportunity to do tzedek (justice) work around the world. Past service projects were in Detroit, Birmingham, New Orleans, Uruguay, Argentina, the Ukraine, and Nicaragua.

Breaking Barriers connects Jewish students with non-Jewish peers for intercultural dialogue. Given the opportunity to learn about other cultures and religions can help us learn more about ourselves as Jews.

Ask Big Questions convenes conversations about life's "Big Questions"—When do we conform? Are we free? What could we sacrifice to repair the world? Through these conversations students can better understanding themselves and others, and improve the world.

Jewish Perspectives on Globalization provides a forum for students to explore global issues through a Jewish lens. Students develop programming to raise awareness around social responsibility, environmental awareness and being a global citizen.

The Jewish Detroit Initiative (JDI) is a student group that engages U-M students with Detroit through social action, education, recreation, and dialogue with city residents.

We Support Detroit Schools (WSDS) seeks to connect public schools with the resources and services they need to provide enrichment programs for students and parents. WSDS participants develop skills in helping partner schools build strong, long lasting relationships and engaging in dialogue that promotes cooperation within diverse communities.

Hayerukim (Hebrew for "The Greens") provides a forum for students to engage in environmental activism from a Jewish perspective and the opportunity to help create a more sustainable Hillel, university and world.

Makom facilitates a series Jewish dialogues to bring together diverse Jewish students to explore various contentious issues that impact American Jews. Makom is a partnership venture with the Program on Intergroup Relations..

Health and Wellness is a group focused on healthy living, fitness and overall wellness. The group coordinates Hillel's yoga classes (twice weekly) and organizes and co-sponsors events that promote a healthy lifestyle.

Shmooze is a Jewish cultural organization whose goal is to spread Jewish culture throughout Hillel and the university community through cultural events like the Kugel Cook-off and M-Shvitz that meets weekly to shmooze in the men's sauna.

Maize & Blue Games is a community service group designed to help support Detroit inner city youth sports programs for underprivileged youth by raising money through Michigan students' participation in Intramural and other sports activities.

Michigan Mensch provides mentorship and guidance for incoming Wolverines. Freshmen are paired with upperclassmen Mensches and get together once a month to chat over coffee on Hillel.

Hillel's ARTs group (HARTS) creates community and programming for students with an interest in the arts. Students come together to learn new skills and techniques and share their artistic work building up to a student exhibit.

Krav Maga – students come to Hillel for a taste of Israeli culture by learning effective Israeli self-defense techniques from a professional Krav Maga instructor.

JEngA is Hillel's Jewish Engineering Students Association, planning social and cultural events for Jewish engineers.

Hillel Outdoor Adventure was started by students who express their Jewish identity by being in nature and the great outdoors. The group is inspired by Scouts and the Jewish value of bal tashchit, meaning "do not destroy," a guiding value for Jewish environmentalism and sustainable living. Outdoor Adventure enjoys camping, hiking, skiing, and snowboarding.

MEDx (Medical Exposure) - MEDx was formed out of the shared interests of students who participated in a summer ambulance volunteer program in Israel with Magen David Adom (Red Star of David, Israel's Red Cross). MEDx seeks to raise awareness about emergency preparedness on campus as well learning about the field of medicine and supporting the overall health of our community.

JEWSIC – Hillel's music program provides a forum for musical students to come together to jam and share music in monthly sessions. All levels are welcome. U-M Hillel also has a jazz and klezmer band that plays on campus and in the community.

FYSH – First Year Students of Hillel – and the residence student outreach committee organize social programming targeted at freshmen to help students meet and develop new friends in Hillel. These groups help foster community in residences on both North and Central Campuses.

Hillel is home to Will Work for Food (WWFF), an independent student group that encourages students to partake in a community effort and get sponsored by their family and friends with a donation to WWFF. All money raised through these sponsored work efforts will go directly to alleviate child malnutrition in Darfur through Doctors Without Borders. For more information, visit www.willworkforfood.org.

Engagement & Entrepreneurship Internship - jNET (the Jewish Network) is an engagement and entrepreneurship internship for people who have a desire to create new and different ways to define or access Jewish life at Michigan. Interns participate in ongoing professional development and skill building in areas of social networking theory, community organizing and entrepreneurship.

U-M Hillel is also a partner to and/or supporter of TEDxUofM, Dance Marathon, Go Blue Wear Pink, Art Out Loud, Prisoner Creative Arts Project, K-Grams,Relay for Life, crowd313, MUSIC Matters and encouraging student involvement in these volunteer and fundraising initiatives.

Rabbi Alter and Chanchi Goldstein, directors

For over 35 years Chabad House has been a home away from home for the thousands of Jewish Students at the University of Michigan. Chabad anticipates and serves the needs of students on a social, educational and spiritual level. At Chabad, all students are welcome, regardless of background, affiliation, and level of observance. At Chabad, students have the ability to discover the warmth and beauty of their heritage, and learn to apply the timeless Jewish principle of Ahavat Israel (love of one's fellow Jew)—at their own pace. Chabad believes that family and community are vital keys to character building. That's why they open their home to students, helping inspire them with a respect for family values and a deep meaningful concern for the land of Israel. Chabad also believes that Jewish education and meaningful experiences are the grass-roots method to fighting indifference, apathy and assimilation that face the Jewish community today.

A collaborative effort of the University of Michigan School of Social Work and the Frankel Center for Judaic Studies, the Jewish Communal Leadership Program (JCLP) offers a distinctive educational opportunity for emerging leaders committed to helping Jewish communities meet 21st century challenges while also addressing broader social concerns.

The program combines academic study in Judaic Studies and Social Work, experiential training in non-profit management, and hands-on engagement with contemporary communal challenges, such as youth engagement, elderly services, Jewish education, differing viewpoints on Israel, and the future of American Jewish identity. Students serve as non-voting board members at local Jewish agencies and pursue field placements with outstanding community agencies locally, nationally, and around the world.

Hailing from across the United States, JCLP students become active members of the Ann Arbor Jewish community. Every year, the program sponsors public events such as film screenings, lectures by nationally known Jewish leaders and thinkers and community gatherings. Every year, JCLP's graduating students convene Devoted to our patients.

"My journey began back in 4th grade when I remember being picked on for my weight. After years of struggling to lose weight, I finally decided to have a bariatric procedure called a Vertical Sleeve Gastrectomy or VSG. Although I was able to lose the weight from this procedure, I still had so much excess skin that clothes didn't fit great. It's one thing to get smaller with weight loss surgery, but I definitely didn't feel like myself carrying around all the extra skin."

After weight loss, many people suffer in silence. Excess skin left behind after rapid or excessive weight loss can cause rashes, pain and even infection. At the Center for Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, we can help by surgically removing excess tissue to help complete your weight loss transformation.

"The skin removal surgery gave me back myself. I had my first surgery to become a healthier me... I had my second surgery to become a happier me. Now I feel strong, confident, proud, pretty, finally... me."

SESAME HALVAH

a classic confection bursting with fresh-roasted sesame seeds

Zingerman's Candy Manufactory

This is the only halvah we know of that's made completely by hand and the proof is in the flavor. We get there by toasting the sesame seeds in our kitchen before we run them through a hand-cranked grinder. Then we add them to the pot with pure Michigan honey and a muscovado brown sugar syrup. It pairs beautifully with a cup of coffee or espresso, a wedge of tangy cheese, or crumbled over a dish of gelato.

Available by the pound EXCLUSIVELY at Zingerman's Creamery and Zingerman's Coffee Company on Plaza Drive near the Ann Arbor airport.

Since 1970, Jewish Studies at the University of Michigan has thrived as an interdisciplinary endeavor drawing on the rich resources of a diverse faculty, educating undergraduate and graduate students, and engaging the community. The Frankel Center for Judaic Studies has become an international leader with faculty integrated in top-tier departments throughout the University of Michigan's Ann Arbor campus. The Center offers students opportunities for in-depth study of modern Jewish literatures and cultures, Hebrew and Yiddish languages, Rabbinic, law, politics, and Jewish history from the ancient to modern eras. Students benefit from the academic excellence of faculty with strengths extending from the study of ancient Jewish law to the role of Yiddish in the modern world.

The inauguration of the Frankel Institute for Advanced Judaic Studies in 2007 has made the University of Michigan a premier site for Jewish studies in the United States. Each year, the Institute brings a group of the world's leading scholars from a variety of disciplines to Ann Arbor. While at Michigan, these Institute Fellows share their research with the local community through public presentations and lectures.

The Frankel Center also sponsors lectures, conferences, exhibits and other events throughout the academic year, including two high-profile annual programs: the Louis and Helen Padnos Lecture in Judaic Studies and the David W. Belin Lecture in American Jewish Affairs. All events are typically free and open to the public.

ADULT HEBREW CLASSES CO-SPONSORED BY BETH ISRAEL CONGREGATION AND TEMPLE BETH EMETH

tel: 665-9897 or 665-4744
email: rabbisoffice@bethisrael-aa.org or sjmin@templebethemeth.org

Beth Israel Congregation and Temple Beth Emeth offer adult Hebrew classes which are open to anyone in the community regardless of synagogue affiliation.

Three tracks of Hebrew are offered: courses for Beginners, courses which focus on Conversational Hebrew and courses which focus on Biblical Hebrew. The 12 week Fall session begins the week of September 30, and a second 12 week session will begin in January. Tuition for each semester is $180 for members of TBE or BIC, and $200 for non-members. Please contact Beth Israel or Temple Beth Emeth for a schedule of class times, and to sign up for a class. Students who are unsure of their level can attend the Drop-In Registration event at Beth Israel on Monday September 23 from 6-7:30 p.m. for assistance in determining the appropriate class, for either site.

The adult classes are taught by two veteran Hebrew instructors, Malli Holoshitz and Pauli Weizman. Malli is a native Israeli who has taught Hebrew for many years; she is noted for her lively and animated teaching style. She earned a Ph.D. in Education from the University of Michigan, and serves as the Head of the Hebrew Department at the Frankel Jewish Academy of Metro Detroit. Malli has taught at the School of Education at Eastern Michigan University, as well as at the University of Michigan, where she received an "Excellence in Education" award.

Pauli has been teaching Hebrew at the University of Michigan since 1987, and is the proud recipient of an "Excellence in Education" award by the Department of Near Eastern Studies. She is a native Israeli and has earned two Master's degrees — one in Teaching English as a Second Language and the other in Social Work; she also has a Bachelor's degree in Hebrew Linguistics.

KESHET ANN ARBOR

milka@umich.edu
Milka Eliav, program director

Keshet is an academic program for high school student, offering the opportunity to take Hebrew classes to fulfill the Foreign Language requirement, and receive high school credit as if it was any other high school class at their school. At Keshet, students meet twice a week for a total of four hours and study Modern Hebrew with professional language instructors, some of which are also U-M lecturers. Classes are small, allowing teachers to focus on their students' progress and lessons are dynamic and communicative.

As with other academic high school courses, students are expected to complete homework, take quizzes, exams, and occasionally prepare class presentations. Attendance and participation are key. Class material is level appropriate and naturally contains cultural components such as Israeli movies, songs, newspapers and more, to make the language learning experience wholesome and well rounded. Keshet offers four levels of Hebrew, from beginners to advanced, and students come from all walks of the Ann Arbor community.

Not all Keshet students take it for credit; some are there for their love of the language and their sincere interest in learning how to communicate in Hebrew. These driven teens are an integral part of classes; they attend regularly, take the exams and participate in other Keshet activities. Keshet is proud to have such motivated students and to be a part of their busy schedules.

Keshet is recognized by the Ann Arbor Public School Community Resource (CR) department, a unique system that lets high school students take a class not offered in their school, and get credit for it. Keshet fulfills CR requirements and maintains close contact with the CR monitor throughout the year.

All classes meet on Monday nights (6:30–8:30 pm), while the other meeting day is determined in September by each teacher and their students. Monday night is pizza night, and students are invited to come earlier (6 p.m.) and enjoy social time with their peers. Keshet follows the Ann Arbor Public Schools calendar as well as the Jewish calendar, and commemorates major Israeli events such as Yitzhak Rabin's Memorial Day, Israel's Independence Day, and more.

Classrooms for Keshet are provided by both Beth Israel Congregation and Temple Beth Emeth; Keshet thankfully acknowledges the educational cooperation and support of these two synagogues and their educational directors. Keshet is funded by a grant from the Jewish Federation, and supported by donations from parents, as well as by gifts from generous members in the community who care about quality Hebrew instruction. Co-sponsors include Beth Israel Religious School and Temple Beth Emeth Religious School.

Classes offered at Chabad House cover the spectrum from basic Hebrew reading and Talmud study groups to Chassidic and Jewish mysticism. All classes are open to all Jews, regardless of their affiliation or background. An extensive library is available with classic and modern references to complement what is taught. The current class list includes: basic Hebrew reading (individual or small group instruction), prayers and their meanings, the Jewish way of prayer and the organization of the siddur (prayer book), Talmud, Chumash (the Five Books of Moses), Rashi (the 12th-century Torah commentator), Chassidic Jewish mysticism and its application to daily Jewish life in the 20th century, The Ethics of Our Fathers, The Shulchan Aruch, and Halachah (code of Jewish law).

Chabad House offers pre-bar/bat mitzvah classes for children ages 10–13. Students preparing for bar or bat mitzvah receive instruction from Rabbi Zalman or Shternie Zweibel. Private tutorial classes are offered to adults to learn specific areas of Torah.

T.E.P. (TORAH ENRICHMENT PROGRAM)

Chabad House, 715 Hill Street 48104
tel: 99-LEARN (995-3276)
Esther Goldstein, director

The program for youth 5–14 years old, explores Jewish values, customs and texts. The children learn Hebrew reading and writing, the core prayers of Jewish tradition, and study Jewish holidays and history. Advanced students also study the Torah commentary of Rashi, one of Judaism's greatest teachers.

The goal of TEP is not only to teach Hebrew as a language, but also to teach what's behind the language and the joy of Judaism. Three levels are offered: beginner, intermediate and advanced. Classes meet on Sundays and Wednesdays.

JUDAIC CLASSICS LIBRARY AND BAR ILAN UNIVERSITY GLOBAL JEWISH DATABASE (RESPONSA PROJECT)

Chabad House, 715 Hill Street 48104
tel: 99-LEARN (995-3276)

Chabad House provides access to these two milestones in computerized Judaic reference and text tools on CD-ROM. The Library answers questions about the Tanach (Five Books of Moses, Prophets and Scriptures), the Babylonian Talmud and Rashis commentaries on the Talmud and the Torah. The Global Jewish Database Project includes texts such as the Jerusalem Bible, Maimonides, the Code of Jewish Law and 253 books of Responsa (rabbinic commentaries and answers to inquiries).

JEWISH EDUCATORS COUNCIL OF ANN ARBOR

tel: 769-2041
e-mail: school@bethisrael-aa.org
Cindy Saper, chair

The Jewish Educators Council provides Ann Arbor Jewish Educational Leaders with opportunities to discuss issues of mutual concern, develop additional professional skills and knowledge in areas of Jewish education and collaborate on programming options for teachers and students. The council consists of the directors of Beth Israel Congregation Religious School, Ann Arbor Chabad, the Hebrew Day School, the JCC Early Childhood Center, the Jewish Cultural School, the Reconstructionist Havurah, Keshet Ann Arbor and Temple Beth Emeth Religious School.

The Council sponsors opportunities for teacher training on the local level during the school year. It brings in one nationally known scholar-in-residence who leads a teacher workshop and spends time in each school working with students and one conference featuring local educational experts. The Jewish Educators Council is funded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor and participating organizations.

CAMP GAN ISRAEL

tel: 995-3276 ext 5
website: www.mycampganisrael.com
Shternie Zwiebel, director

Camp Gan Israel is a summer camp dedicated to enriching the lives of children from diverse Jewish backgrounds and affiliations through a stimulating day camp experience. C.G.I. of Ann Arbor is part of the largest and fastest growing network of day camps, enjoying a reputation as a pioneer in Jewish camping, with innovative ideas and creative activities, to both provide enjoyment and inspire children to try new and exciting things.

Camp Gan Israel was created to provide children with a fun and meaningful summer program, while fostering growth individually and socially in a Jewish atmosphere. The daily schedule includes an exciting mix of sports, field trips, special programs and activities designed to be educational, fun and conducive to building character and nurturing friendships.

Camp Gan Israel is for children ages 4–13 with four divisions:

1. Mini Gan Izzy for ages 4–5 years
2. Junior Division for kids entering 1st–2nd grade
3. Sabra for kids entering 3rd–4th grade
4. Pioneer for kids entering 5th–8th grade

The program includes field trips to many places in Southeast Michigan; three-times-a-week swimming; and three-times-a-week "icamp," an innovative program where the campers can choose their activities, such as: dance, woodworking, art, tennis, a science program, gymnastics, music, jewelry making, cooking, origami, martial arts, yoga, chess, nature, and other sports. Every Friday there is a Shabbat celebration which includes a Shabbat party and challah baking.

Camp Gan Israel's Judaic programming is designed to instill campers with a love for Judaism and pride in their Jewish identity. The camp Judaic experience is comprised of engaging activities, hands-on projects, stories, songs and crafts. Camp is filled with programming that teaches children positive values and character traits, taught in a fun, exciting way.

There is a camp theme each year on which all activities center, and it is emphasized that every child, irrespective of their level of Jewish observance, becomes a part of the Gan Israel family.

Camp Gan Israel is fully licensed by the State of Michigan. It is located at Clonlara School, 1289 Jewett Road. Camp Gan Israel runs for seven weeks during the summer.

GAN YELADIM ENRICHMENT

Chabad House, 715 Hill Street 48104

email: esther@jewmich.com
Esther Goldstein, coordinator

Gan Yeladim, for children ages 2–5 years, meets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1–4 p.m. At Gan Yeladim each child is encouraged to make choices with respect towards him/herself, others and his/her surroundings.

Group leaders seek to nourish each child's heart and mind as their cognitive, social, emotional, and physical skills are developed, so that each child will be a well-rounded person capable of solving problems and adapting to new situations. Children are educated in a creative, supportive, and warm Jewish environment, so that each child will learn about life as a Jew.

Gan Yeladim Playgroup seeks to create a stimulating and enriching educational environment for each and every child. Group leaders are devoted to helping children learn socialization skills, building their self-confidence and teaching them the about Jewish values and rituals through songs, stories and arts and crafts. In addition, they seek to ignite a spark in each child to lay claim to his Jewish heritage and commit him or her to a lifetime passion for Jewish learning.

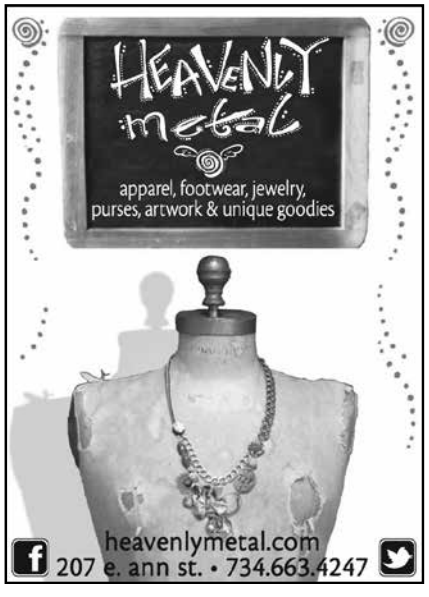
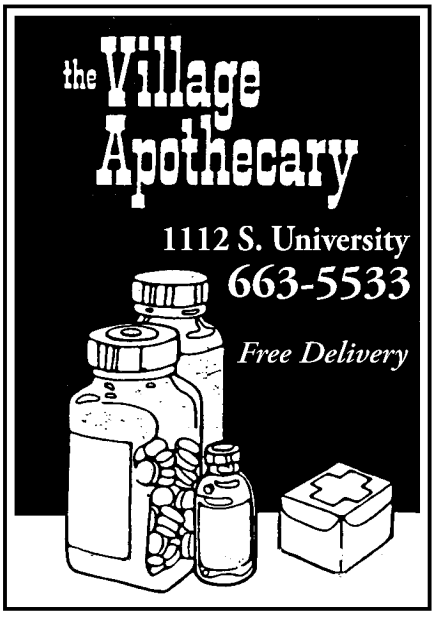
WASHTENAW JEWISH NEWS





Keeping Kosher in Ann Arbor

by Marcie Greenfield and Susan Ayer

If you're keeping a kosher home in Washtenaw County, there are plenty of options. Hiller's and Trader Joe's are your best bet. Both offer a wide variety of kosher products and fresh kosher meat. Whole Foods, People's Food Co-op, Arbor Farms, Busch's, Plum Market and Costco add to the abundance of vegetarian and kosher foods available locally. Kroger, Meijer and Busch's sell Hebrew National hot dogs and the normal grocery store items. You can find kosher wine at many stores, including Hiller's, Whole Foods, Stadium Market, Morgan and York, Plum Market and A&L Wine Castle. Just Baked, an Ann Arbor bakery with multiple locations in the metro area, is certified kosher (dairy).

Hiller's, a Michigan-owned grocery store with several locations around the Detroit metro area, has the largest selection of kosher products, with dedicated kosher sections in the grocery, frozen and refrigerated aisles. They offer fresh and frozen kosher beef, chicken and turkey, and they often have frozen kosher duck. Hiller's also has an extensive selection of kosher cold cuts that they will slice on a machine only used for kosher meat. They also have the greatest choices for Passover. Ask at the service desk if you don't see what you want because they may be able to order it.

Trader Joe's has a printed list of kosher products sold there (including a list with details about the kosher symbols on their packages). You can get the list at the store or on their website (traderjoes.com) under products & guides. They usually stock most kosher fresh chicken options, turkey breast and ground turkey, ribeye steak, brisket and ground beef.

Costco sells frozen Empire cooked chicken tenders, family-size packages of Aarons cold cuts (roast turkey and corned beef) and Hebrew National hot dogs. Other specialty items are also available at other times during the year.

There also are plenty of vegetarian and vegan shopping options at the People's Food Coop, Whole Foods (they also have a list of kosher foods sold there, a small frozen kosher section and some fresh Kosher chicken) and Arbor Farms.

About 45 minutes away is a full-service kosher butcher (Harvard Row Kosher Meat) and bakeries (Bake Station and Zeman's). In addition, the area's largest all-Kosher grocery store, One Stop Kosher in Oak Park, includes fresh meat and produce, fresh-sliced deli meats, cooked foods and a large selection of wine.

Most restaurants in town offer vegetarian and vegan options. Seva has been a strictly vegetarian restaurant since 1973. Around the corner is Earthern Jar, a vegetarian and vegan Indian food buffet. Jazzy Veggie on Main Street offers a full menu of creative vegetarian and vegan fare. Hut-k Chaat, one of Mark's Carts (211 W. Washington), with an additional eat-in location on Packard near Platt, offers an all-vegetarian menu with vegan options. Another former food cart, The Lunch Room, is now a vegetarian and vegan restaurant at Kerrytown.

The Ann Arbor Chabad House provides classes and assistance to community members who are interested in kashering their kitchen and keeping kosher. Call (734) 995-3276 for details. Delivery from several kosher restaurants, carry-out places and bakeries located in Detroit area can be arranged through the Chabad House for a small fee.

University of Michigan Hillel, located at 1429 Hill Street, offers delicious kosher meals available to students and the broader public, under the supervision of Rabbi Rod Glogower of the Ann Arbor Orthodox Minyan (AAOM). Meals are served Monday to Friday during the academic year from noon–2 p.m. and 5:30–7:30 p.m. The menu is seasonal and updated daily at www.michiganhillel.org. Customers are encouraged to call the kitchen to ask questions or place orders for take-out by calling 769-0500 before 5 p.m.

To stay abreast of recent happenings in the kosher world, you can subscribe to Kosher-Gram, published by Va'ad Harabonim (Rabbinical Council) of Detroit. Call (248) 559-5005 to be put on the mailing list or go to their website at cordetroit.com. Kashrut alerts also are posted on the Orthodox Union website, ou.org, and koshermichigan.com.

The following Ann Arbor stores offer kosher foods:

- Arbor Farms, 2103 West Stadium Blvd.
- Costco, 771 Airport Blvd.
- Hiller's Market, 3615 Washtenaw Ave.
- Just Baked, 2463A West Stadium Blvd.

- Plum Market, 375 North Maple Rd.
- Trader Joe's, 2398 East Stadium Blvd.
- Whole Foods Market, 3135 Washtenaw Ave.

The following stores are located in cities about 45 minutes away:

- Bake Station, 30760 Southfield Road, Southfield; 29581 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills
- Harvard Row Kosher Meat, 6221 Orchard Lake Road, West Bloomfield
- One Stop Kosher Food Market, 25155 Greenfield Road, Southfield
- Zeman's New York Bakery, 25258 Greenfield, Oak Park

Kosher restaurants/caterers in Metro Detroit:

- Unique Kosher Catering & Carryout (meat & vegetarian), 26270 Greenfield Road, Oak Park, (248) 967-1161
- Sara's Deli (meat), 15110 Ten Mile Road, Oak Park, (248) 967-8681; http://www.sarasdeli.net/
- Jerusalem Sub (meat), 26025 Greenfield Road, Southfield, (248) 423-4400; http://jsubsonline.com/
- Cafe One (dairy), 15600 W. Ten Mile Rd., Southfield, (248) 557-2233
- Jerusalem Pizza (dairy) 2 locations, 6600 West Maple, West Bloomfield, (248) 592-1200; and 26025 Greenfield Road, Southfield, (248) 552-0088; http://www.jpizza.com/index.php

The above establishments act in strict accordance to the Detroit Council of Orthodox Rabbis standards for kashrut.

Together, We Do Extraordinary Things!

Jewish Federation® OF GREATER ANN ARBOR

Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor is proud of its long-standing history of building Jewish community and taking responsibility for each other according to the principles of chesed (caring and compassion), Torah (Jewish learning), tikkun olam (repairing the world) and tzedakah (social justice).

How You and the Federation Make a Difference

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION – The Jewish Community Foundation is the planned giving and endowment development arm of the Ann Arbor Jewish community. The Foundation partners with eight area agencies and congregations including: the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor, Beth Israel Congregation, Chabad, Hebrew Day School, the Jewish Community Center, Jewish Cultural Society, Jewish Family Services and Temple Beth Emeth.

PROGRAMMING – Programs for healthcare professionals (Maimonides), legal professionals (Cardozo), young professionals (Salon), Women's Philanthropy and boomers (Launch) which enlighten, provoke meaningful conversation, and connect Jews in Ann Arbor.

ISRAEL PROGRAMS AND MISSIONS – Our missions are travel experiences unlike any other. Join us as we explore the past, present and future of the Jewish people in Israel and around the world. Our Student Exchange program is offered to 9th grade students during mid-winter break. Participants are housed with host families and will spend the week attending school with their hosts, touring the Central Galilee, and interacting with their peers. Our Israel programs enlighten the Ann Arbor community about the complexities of Israel and her people.

SAVING JEWISH LIVES – Funds are delivered overseas as well to deserving organizations like the Jewish Joint Distribtution Committee and the Jewish Agency for Israel. Giving to Federation, impacts all these programs, all at once.

SUPPORTING JEWISH LIFE – The programs we all know and rely on (Jewish Community Center, Jewish Family Services, Hebrew Day School and Keshet to name just a few) get what they need to continue their great work.
